In Memory

Charles Cofield

Junior

The Warrior Staff would like to honor the memory of two who are no longer with us. We no longer hear their laughter nor see their quiet smiles. They were taken so quickly and it is not meant that we should understand. We would like to have shared more of our days with them, but this was not meant to be. We miss them.

Milton Harrison

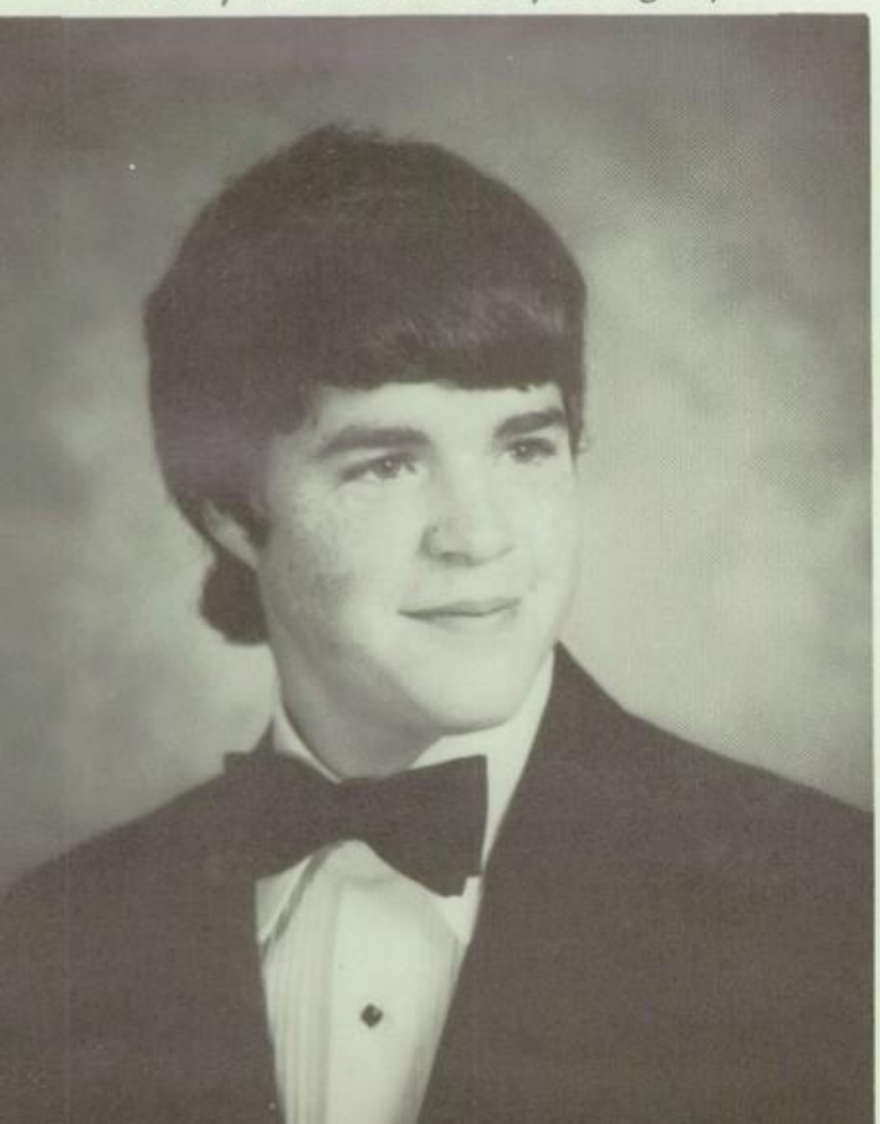
Freshman

Seniors

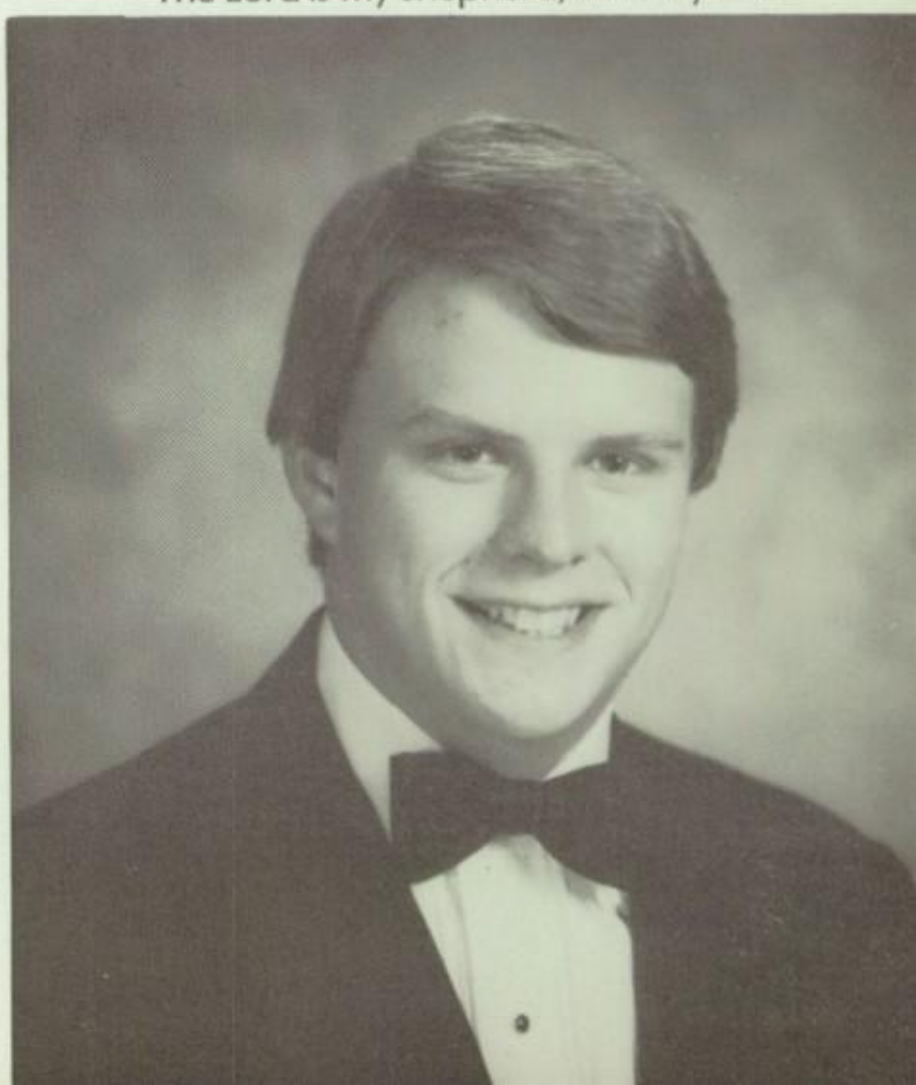
Tina Adams
Who knows me as well as I do but yet can still explain me better than I? God!

Karen Austin
It takes both rain and sunshine to make rainbows.

Wayne Bailey
I'm really innocent . . . I only look guilty.



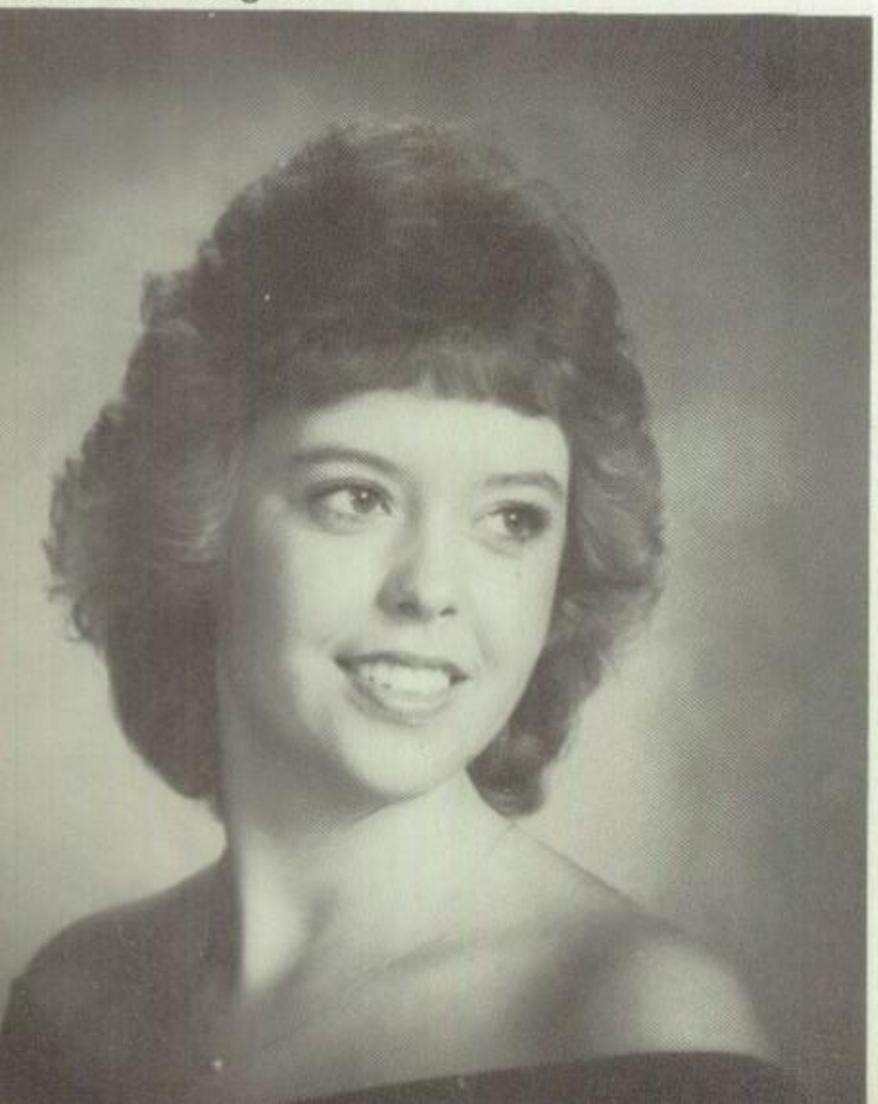
Craig Barnard
The Lord is my shepherd, who's yours?



Connie Brewster
If I cannot do great things, I'll do small things in a great way.

Sharon Brewster
Success is getting what you want; happiness is wan ting what you get.

Cindy Burke
The smallest feelings are worth more than the most beautiful thoughts.



Marie Clark
Her future is planned; third finger left hand.

Diane Coley

t is not how much we have, but how much we enoy that makes happiness.

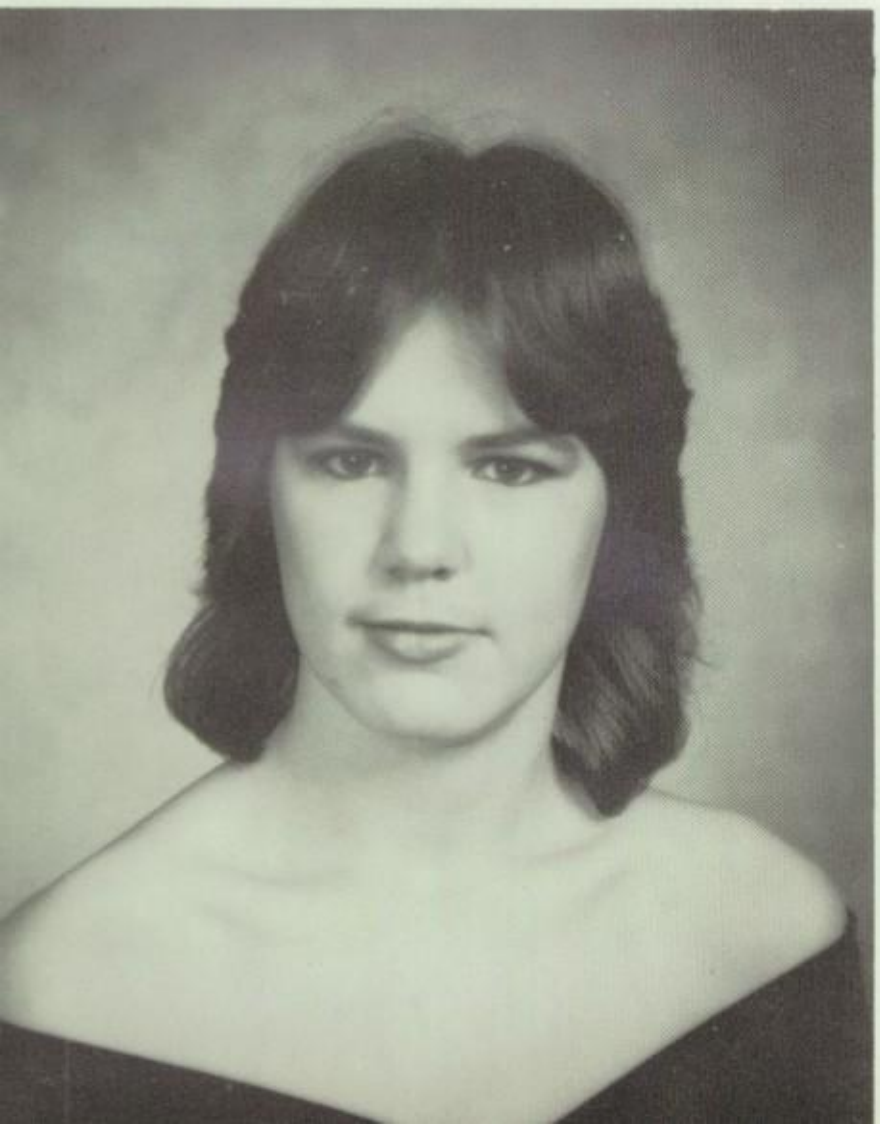
Rodney Collins

A man's future is not in his hands, but where his feet take him.

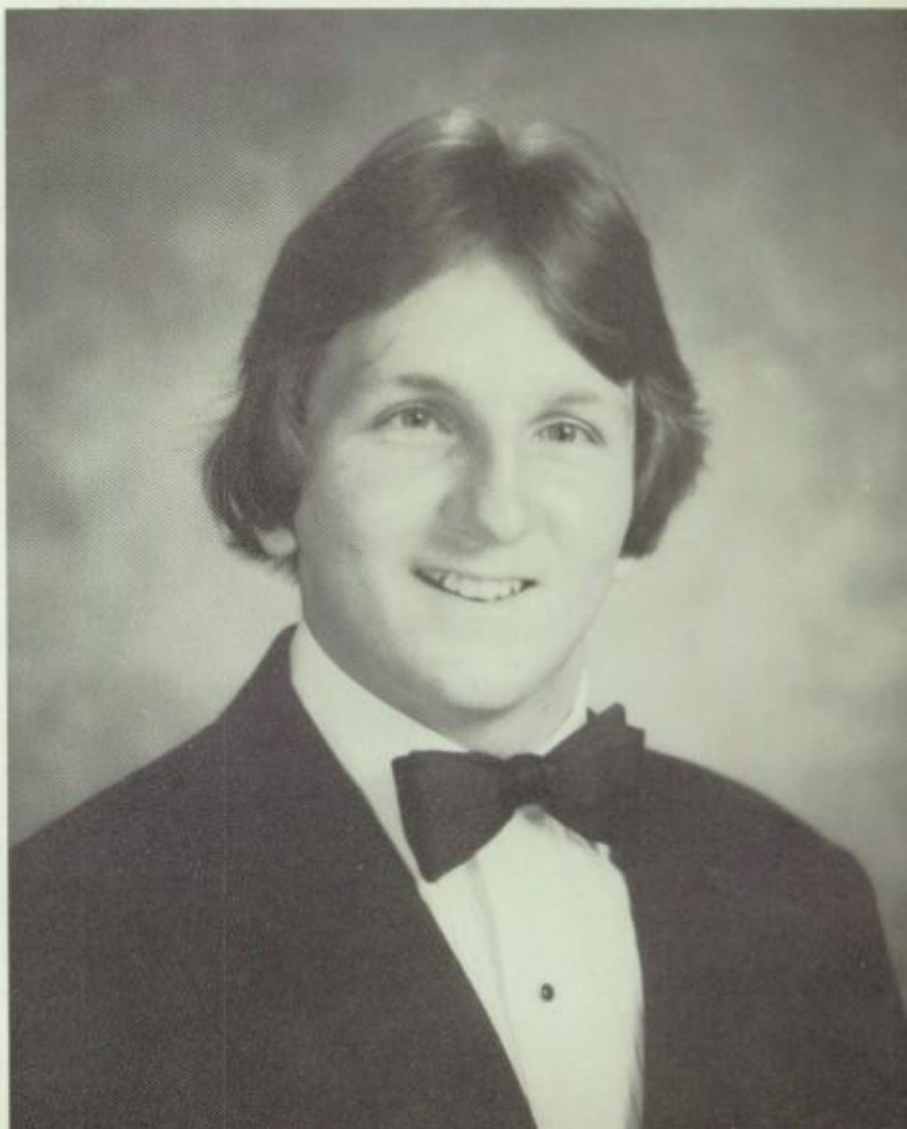
Dewanna Cox

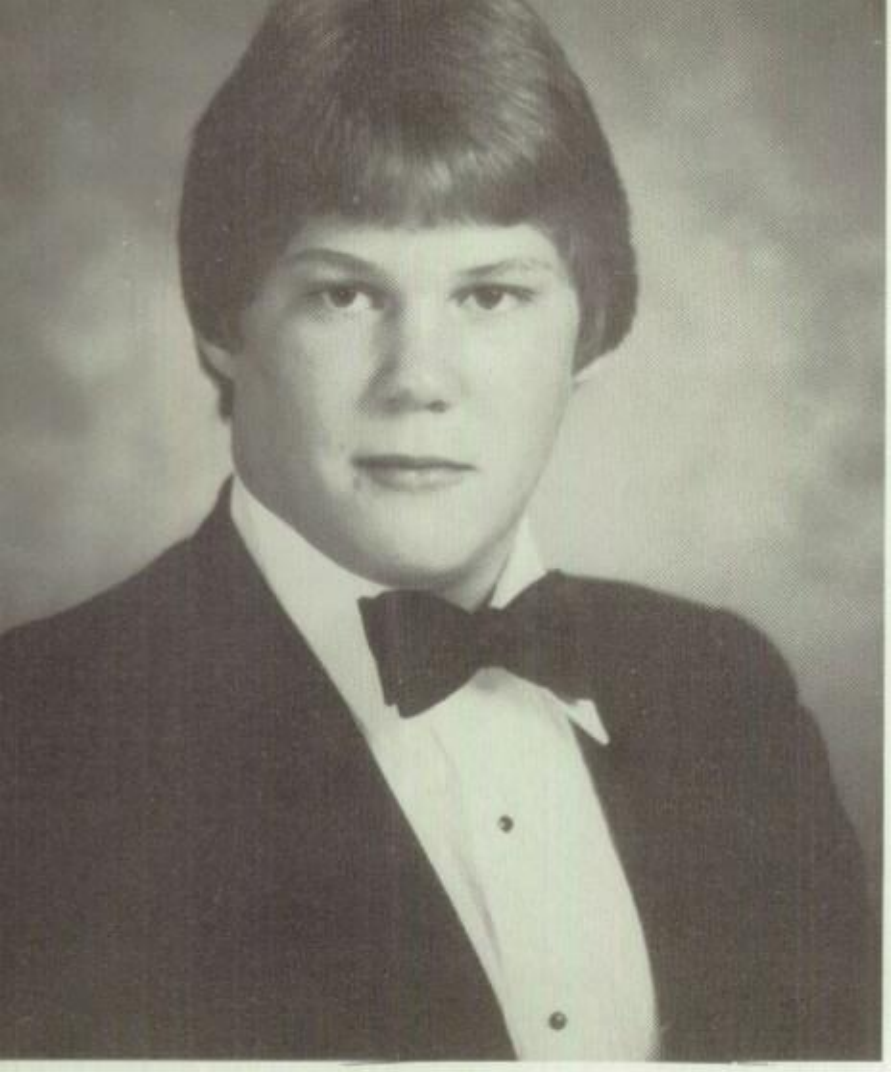
If only I could get that great feeling of accomplishment without accomplishing anything.



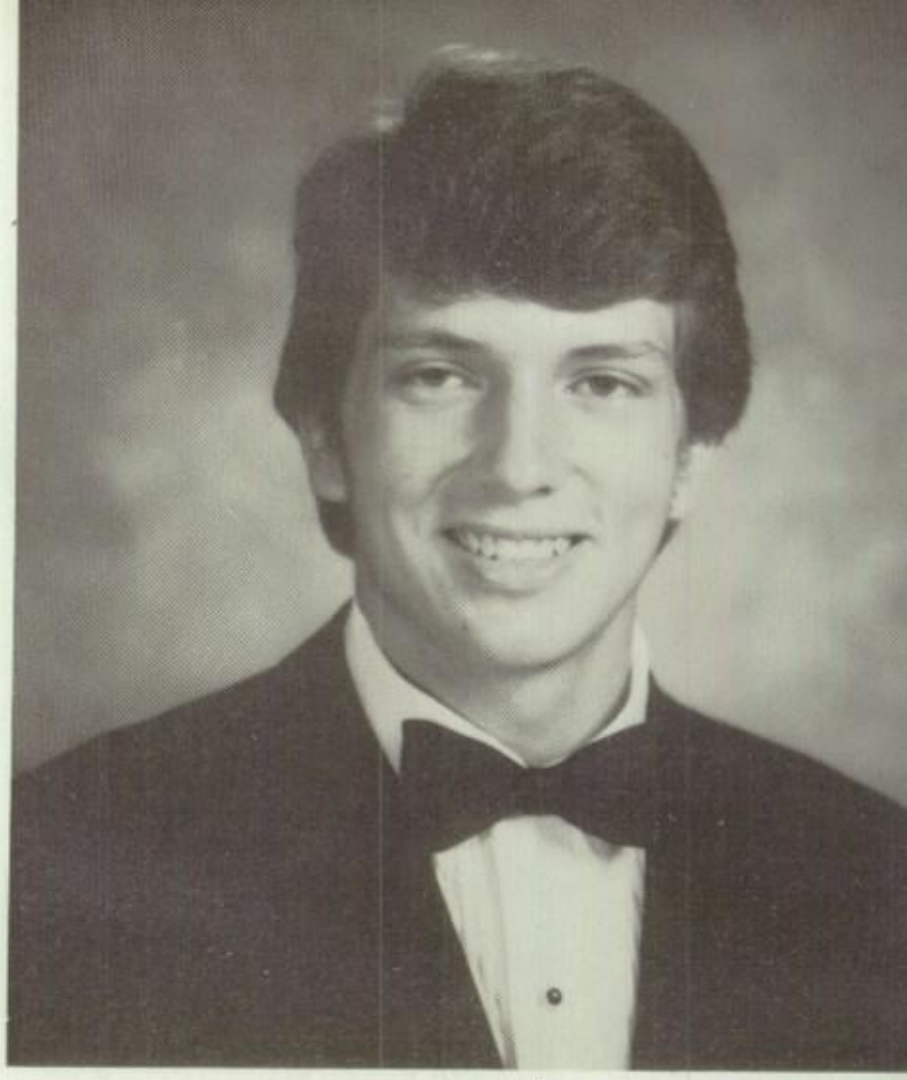
Gary Dunaway

Work, I love it. I could sit and watch it all day!



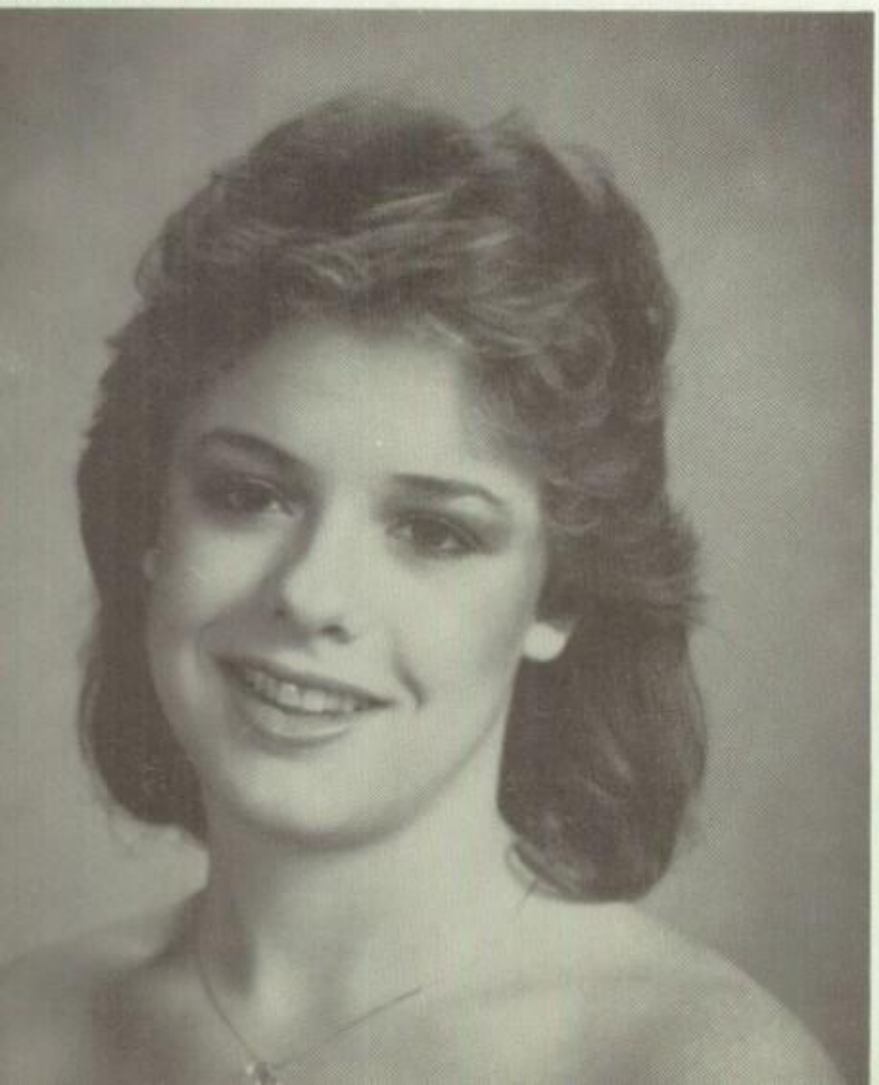


Johnny Endress
Whenever I feel like studying I just lie down till the feeling goes away.

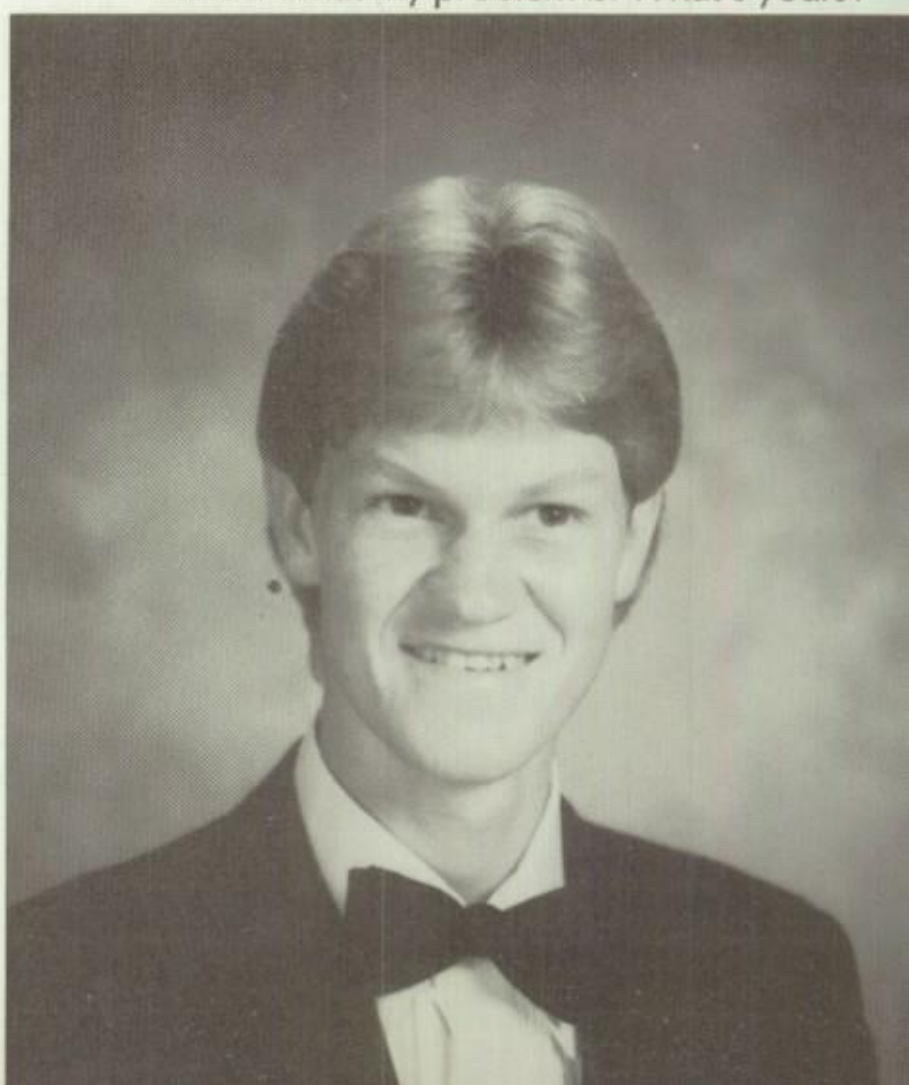


Bruce Evans
All of this and brains too.

Toni Griffin
Make the most of your life and always be five minutes late.



James Hale
I know what my problem is. What's yours?



Michele Hambright

At the present we have dreams. In the future we have hope. Only in the past will we have memories.

Connie Hanner

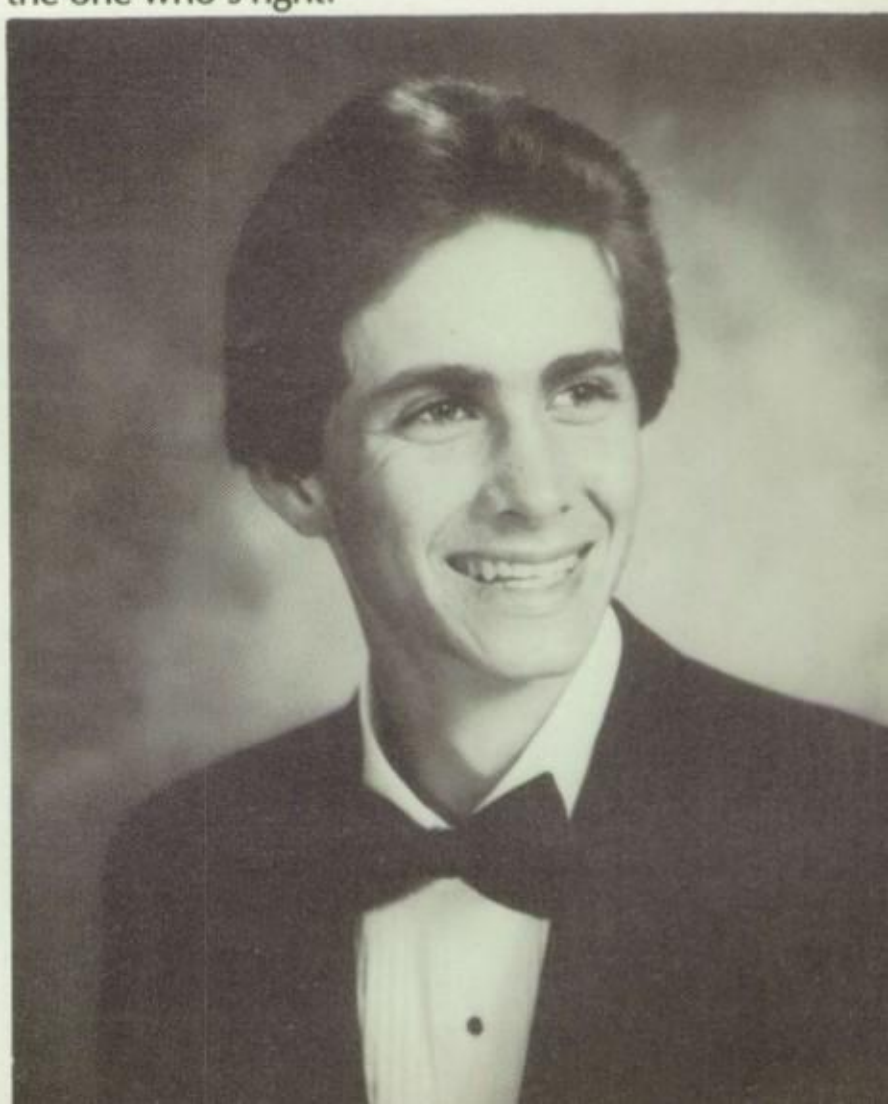
Our private miracle . . . flesh of our flesh, joy of our joy, life of our love.

Shirley Haynes

There isn't enough time in the world for love; so why waste it on hate?

Steve Kirkland

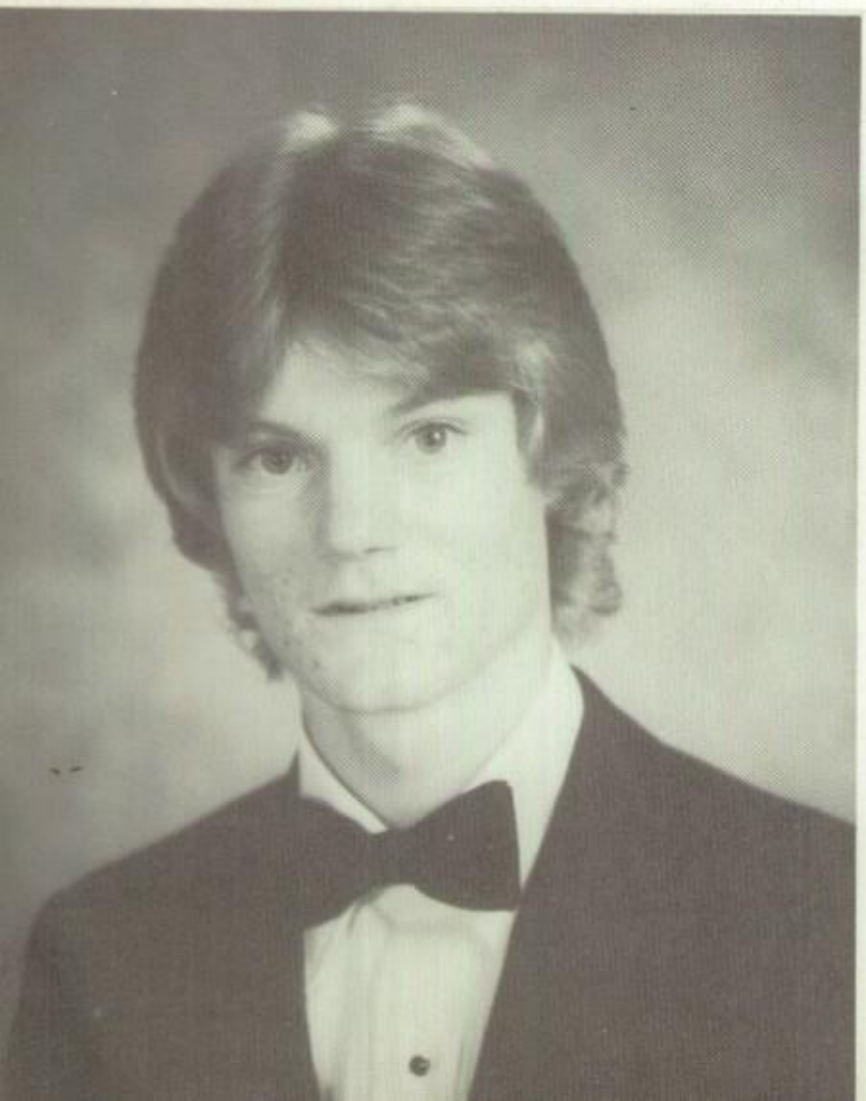
Why should I be willing to compromise when I'm the one who's right.



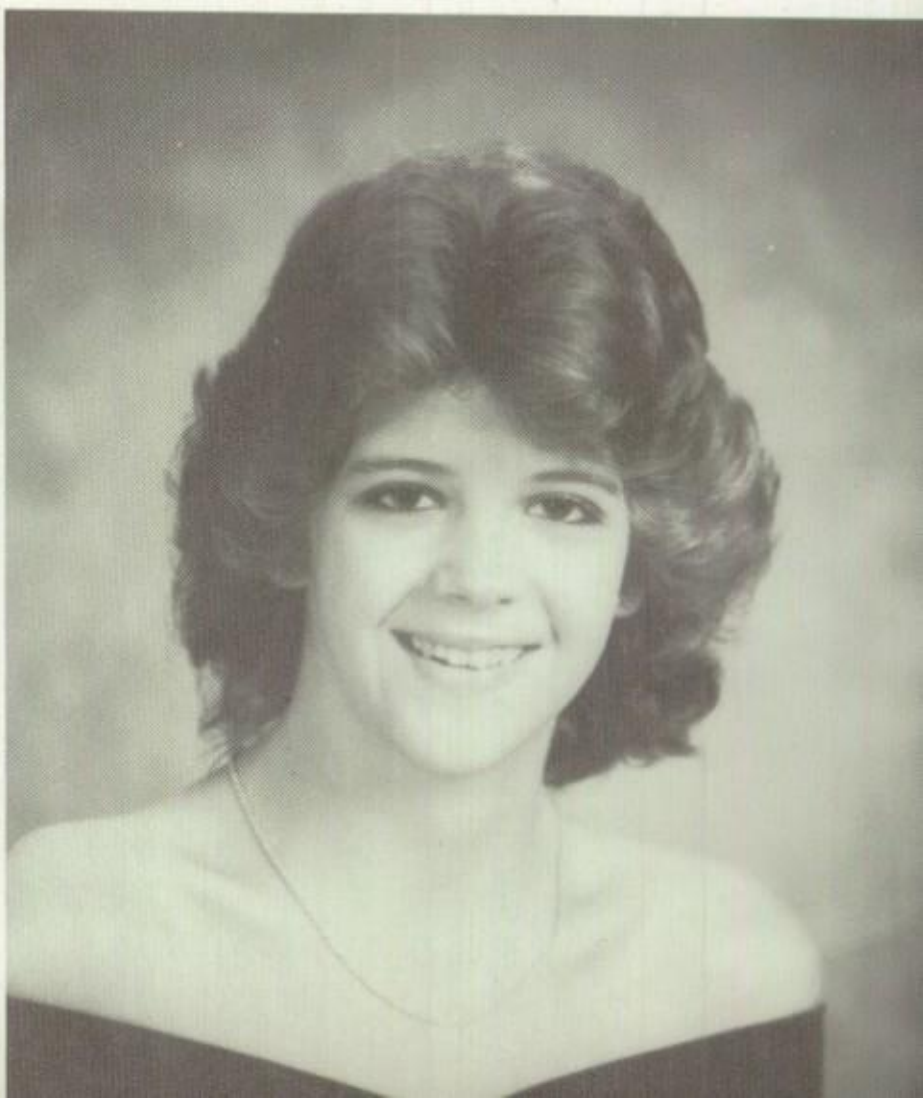
Kimberly Koss
Don't pray for an easy life. Pray to be a strong person.

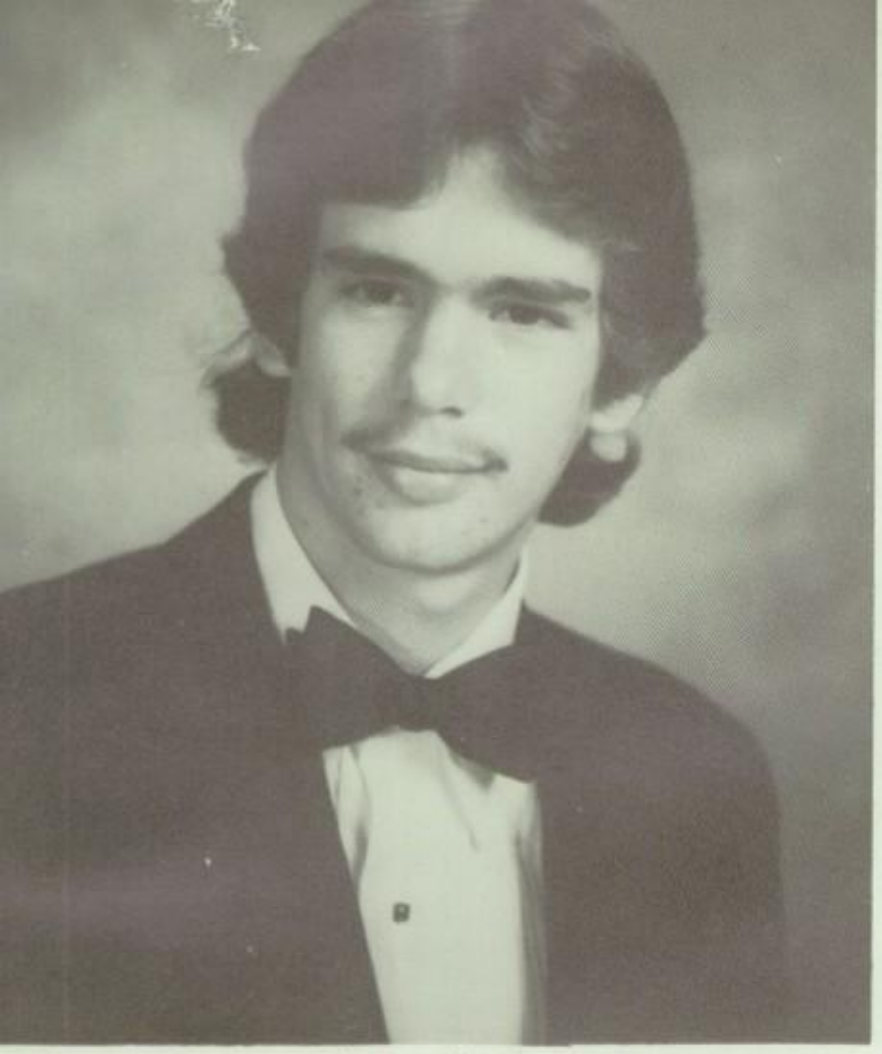
Shirley Logan
Only those who will risk going too far know how far one can go.

Neal Martin
No matter how high the throne is on which one sits, one still sits on one's bottom.

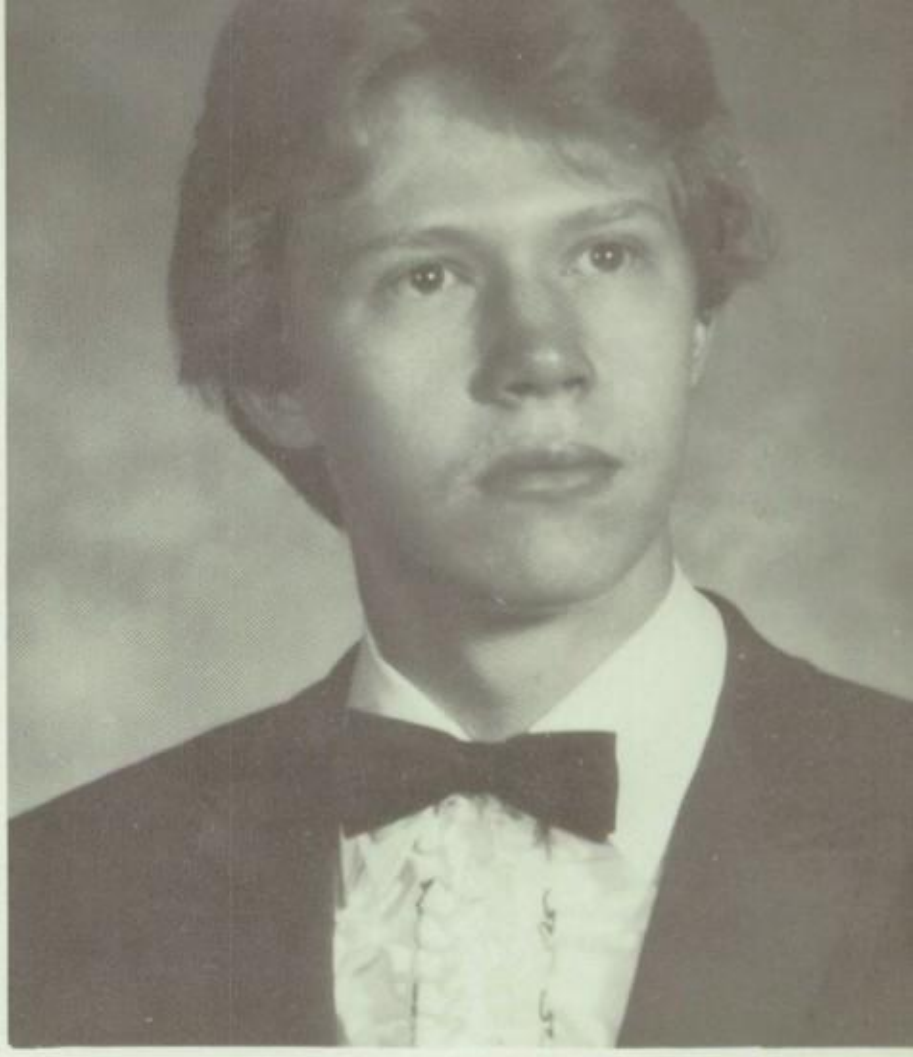


Lisa Martin
Beauty is all around for those who choose to see it.



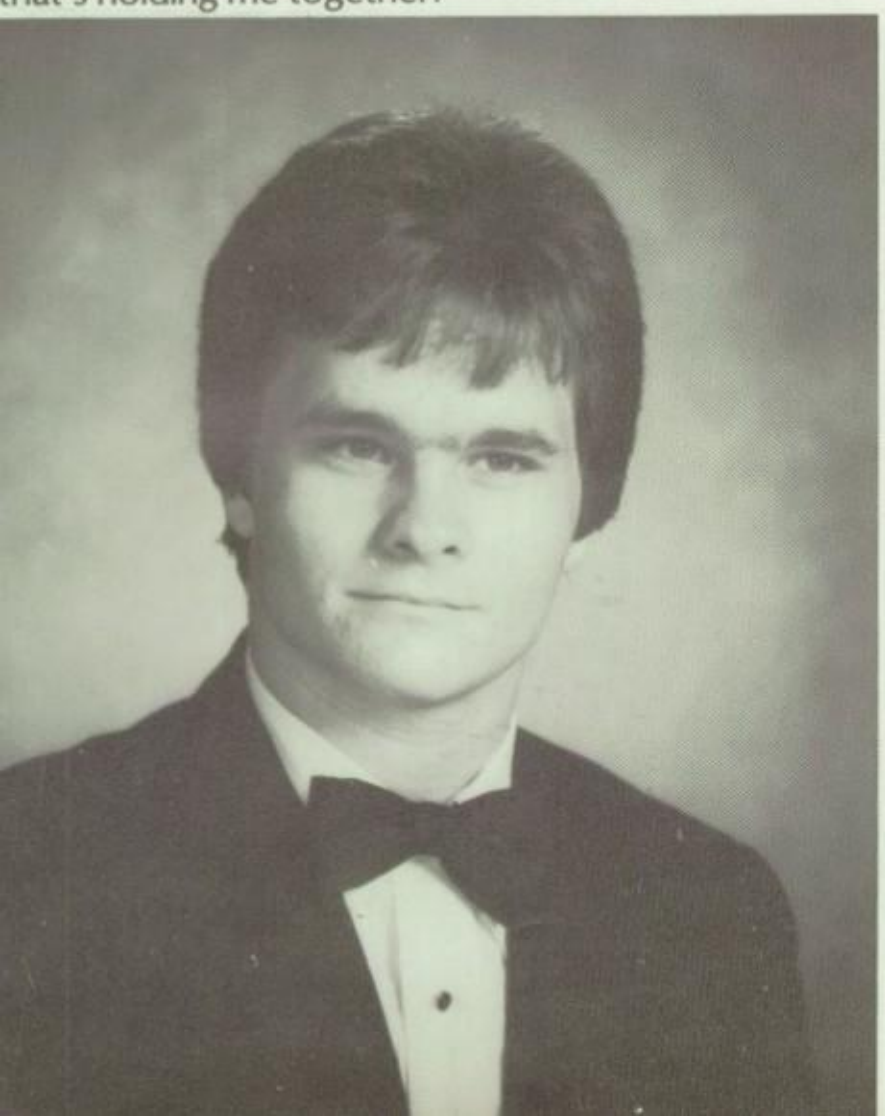


Eric Mashburn
This Bud's for me!

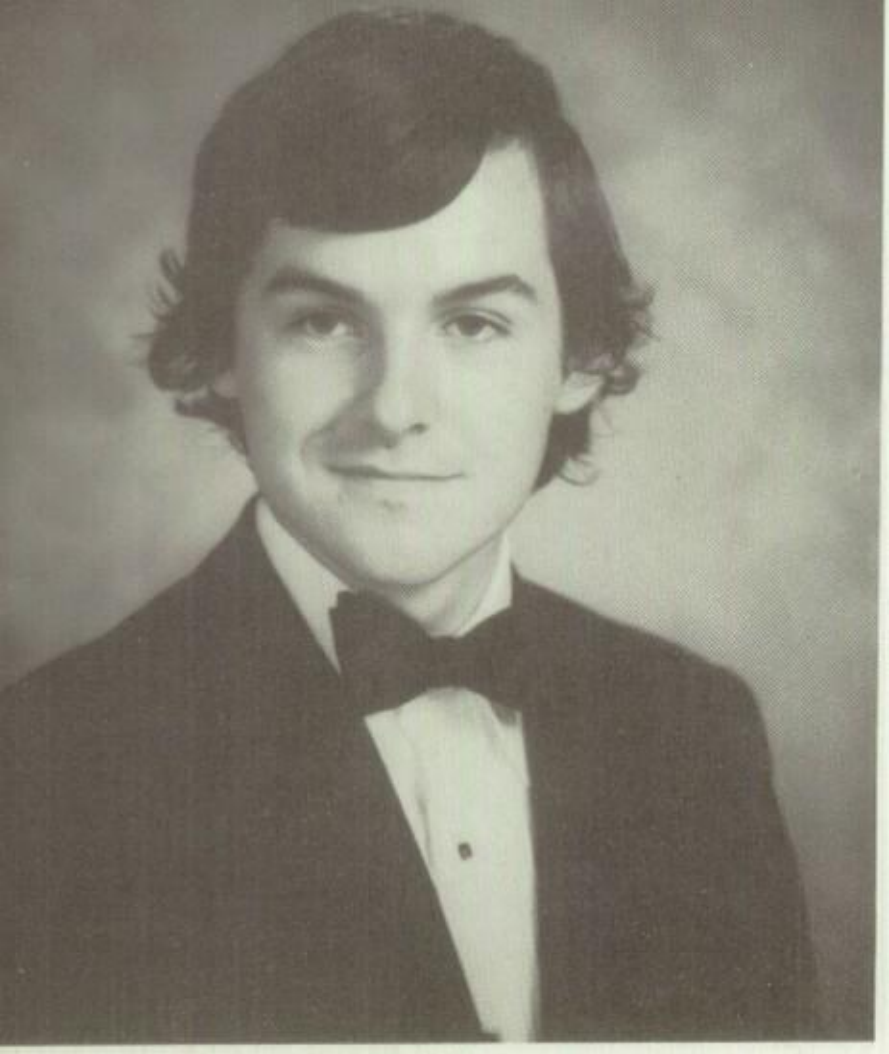


Doug McDowell
Some people call me crazy; I call it unique.

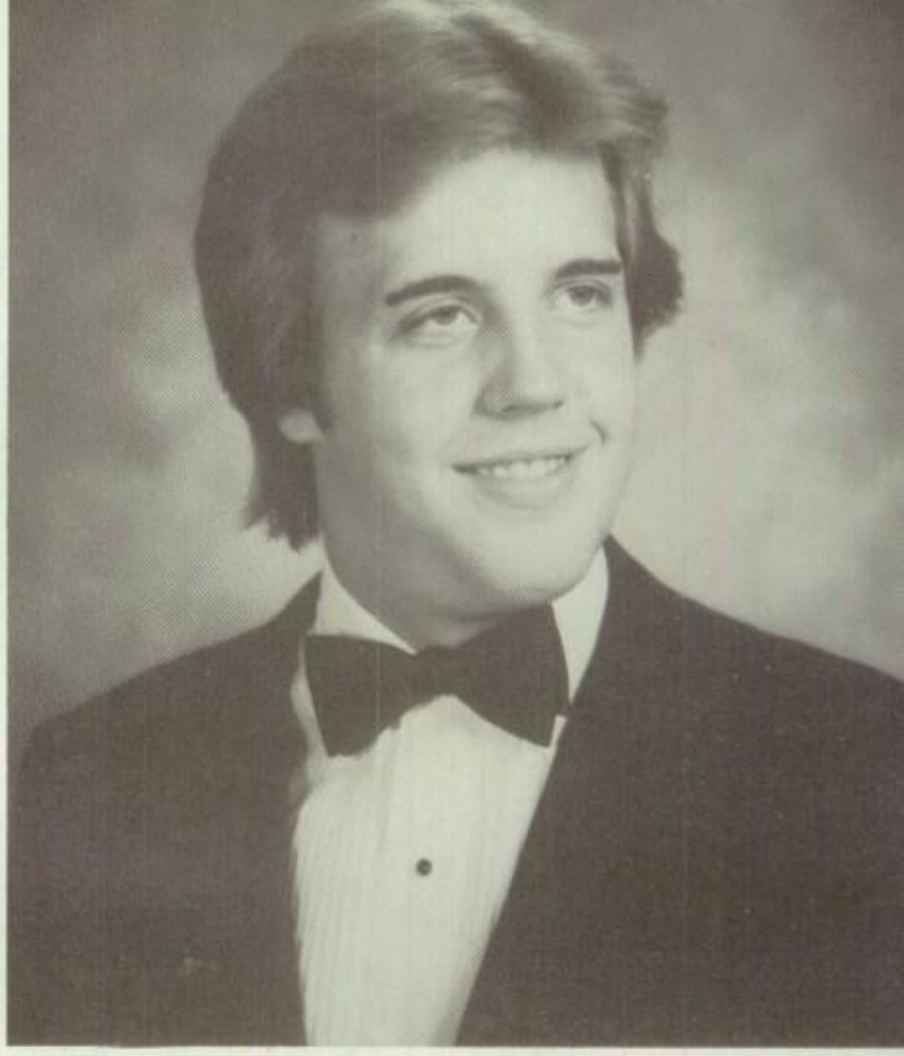
David Nance
Please don't tell me to relax. It's only my tension that's holding me together.



Anna Parnell
If one is lucky, a solitary fantasy can totally transform into one million realities.

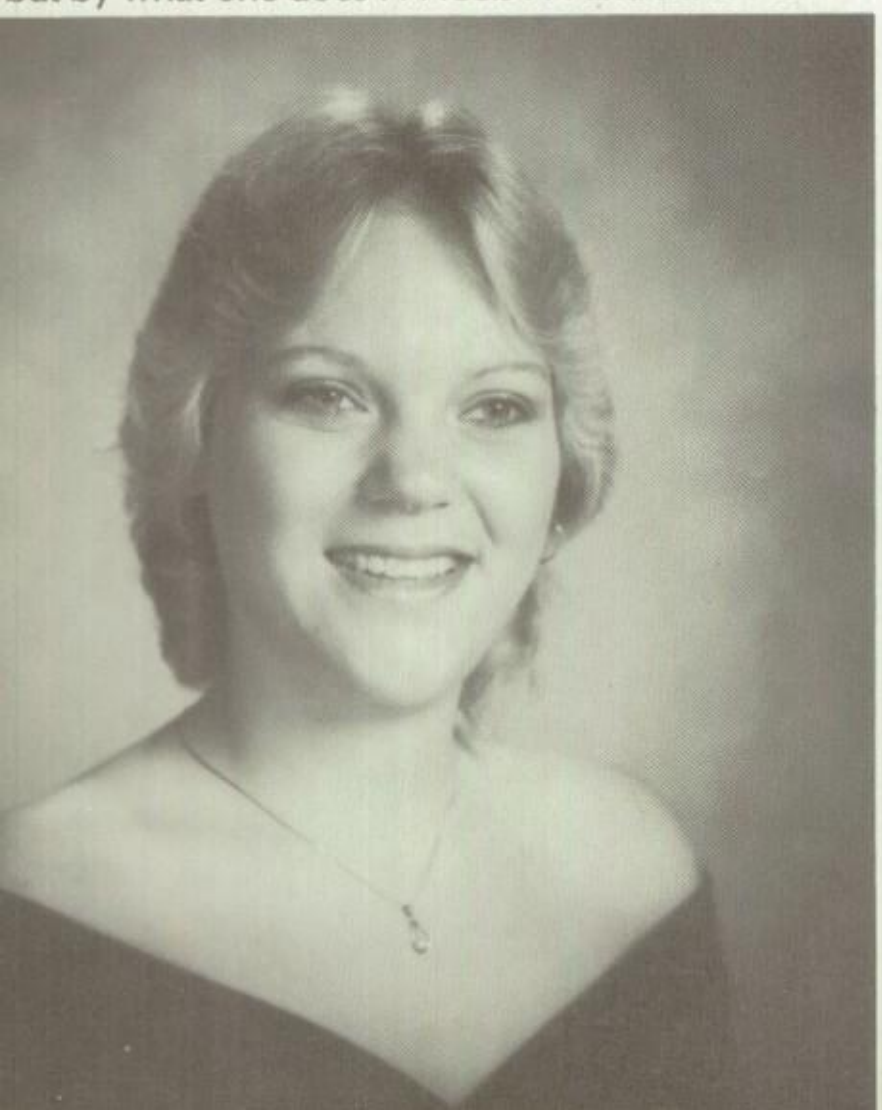


Tim Phillips
Life is jest and all things show it. Thought so once and now I know it.

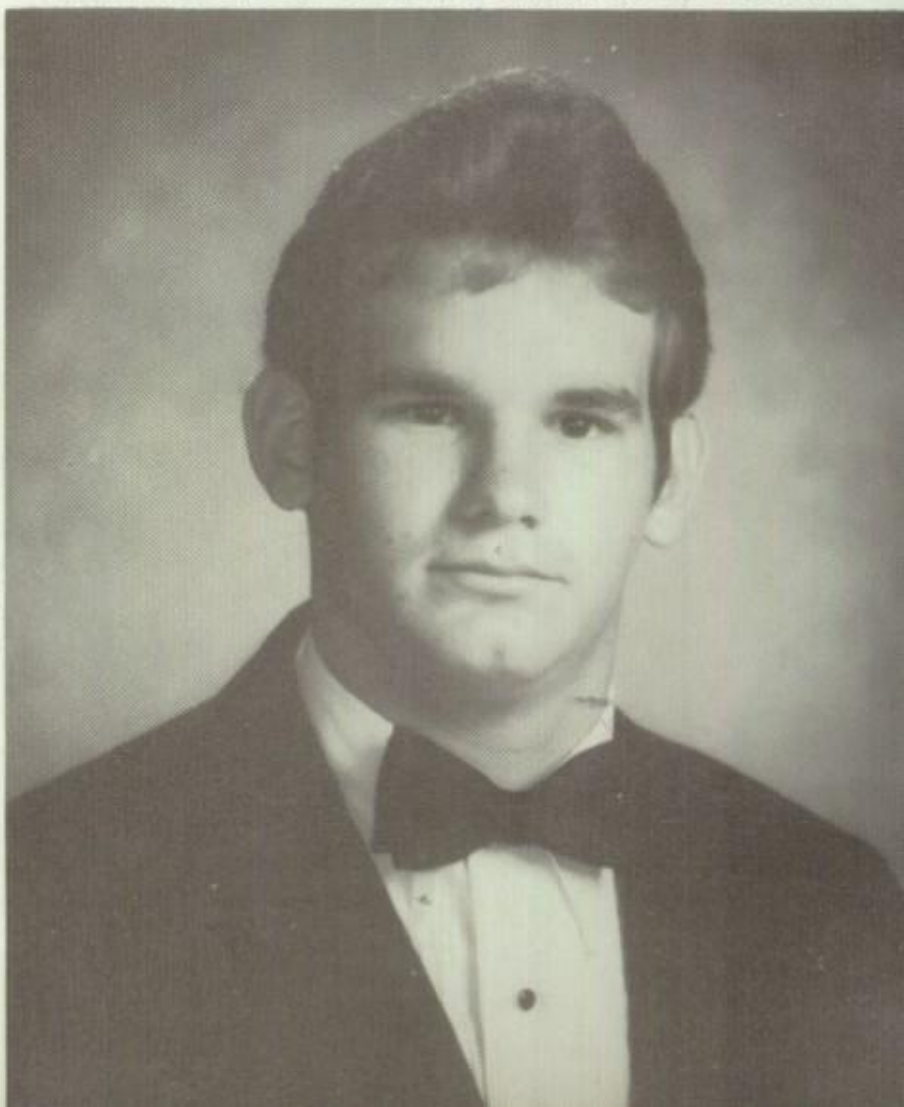


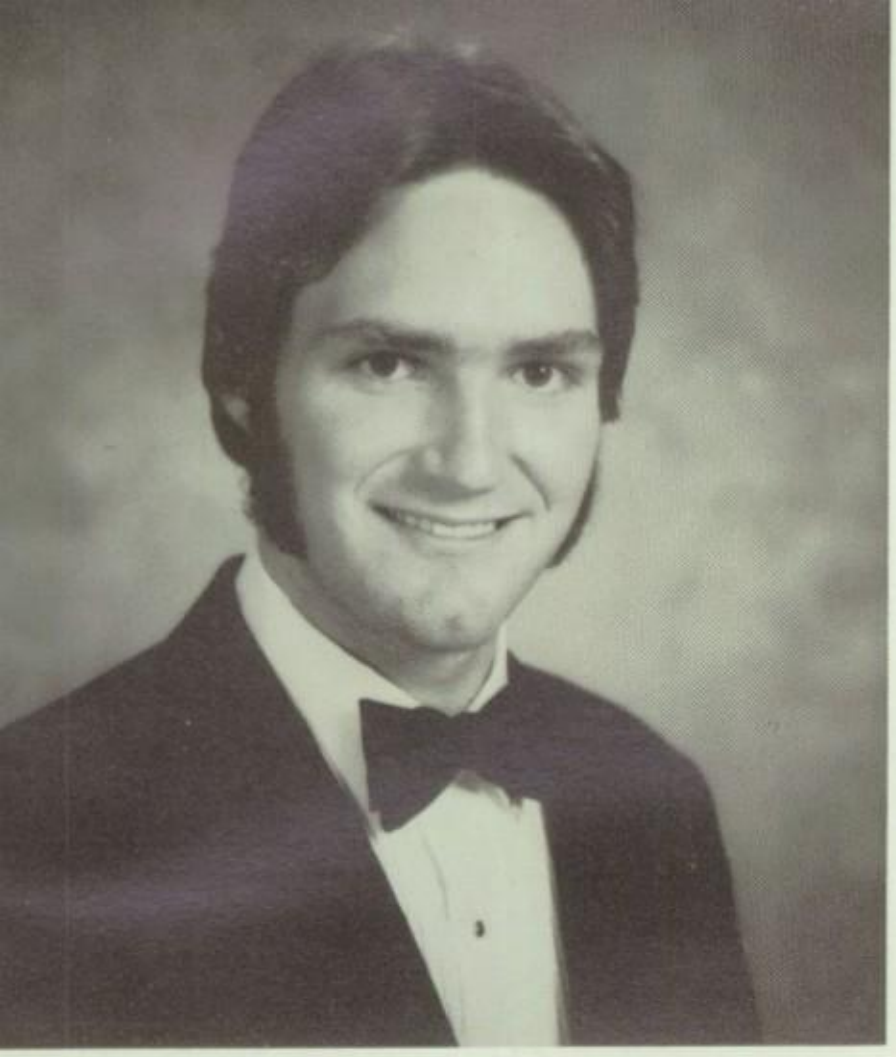
Wade Pippin
I'm easy to please, but hard to satisfy.

Joan Poole
Time is not measured by the passing or the years, but by what one does . . . feels . . . and achieves.

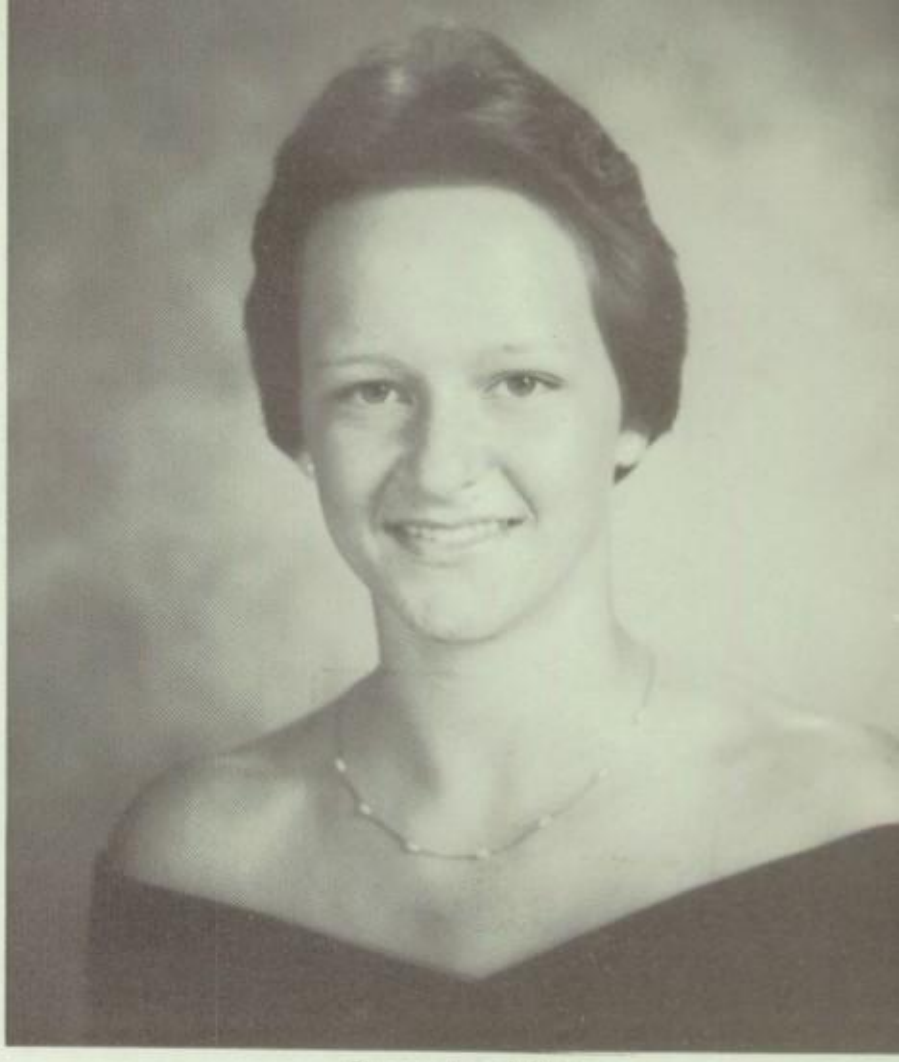


Sam Ramsey
The glory of friendship is not the outstretched hand, the smile, nor companionship; it is the spiritual inspiration that comes when one discovers that someone else believes in him and trusts him.



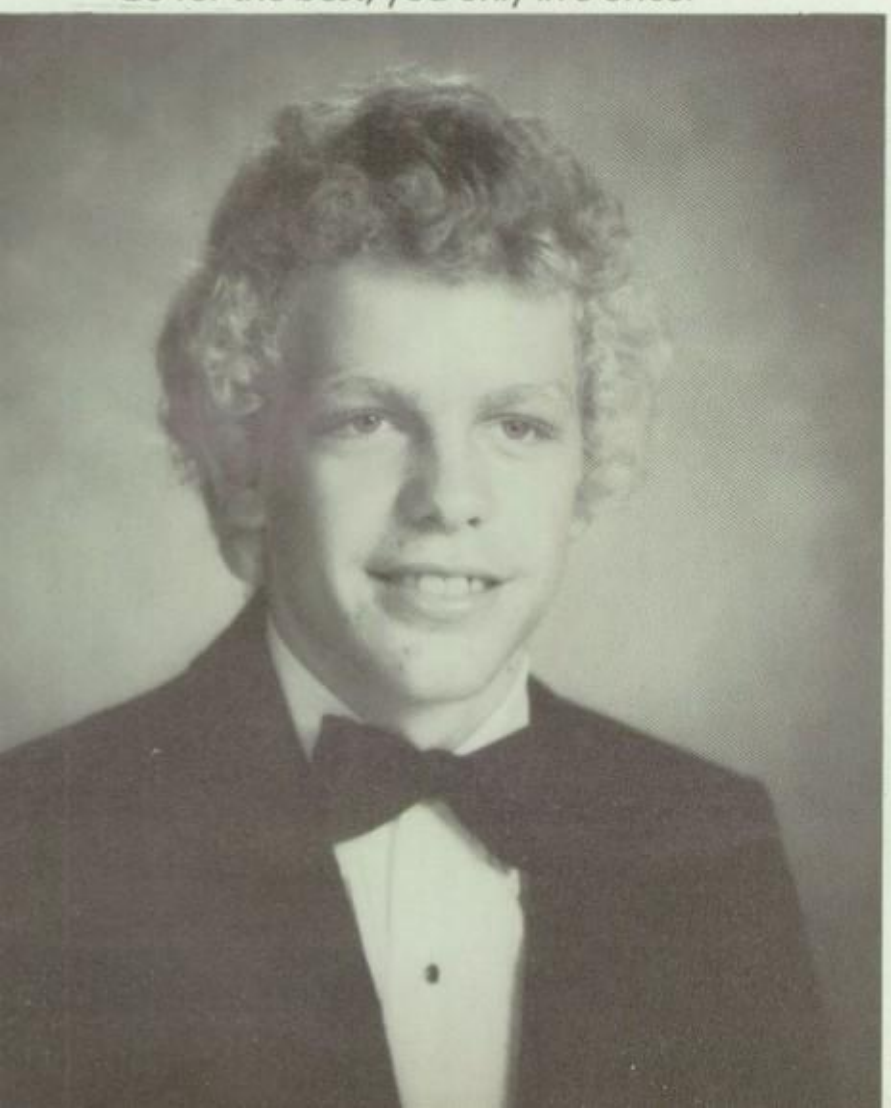


Tommy Reaves
Good things come to those who wait. I hope I graduate.

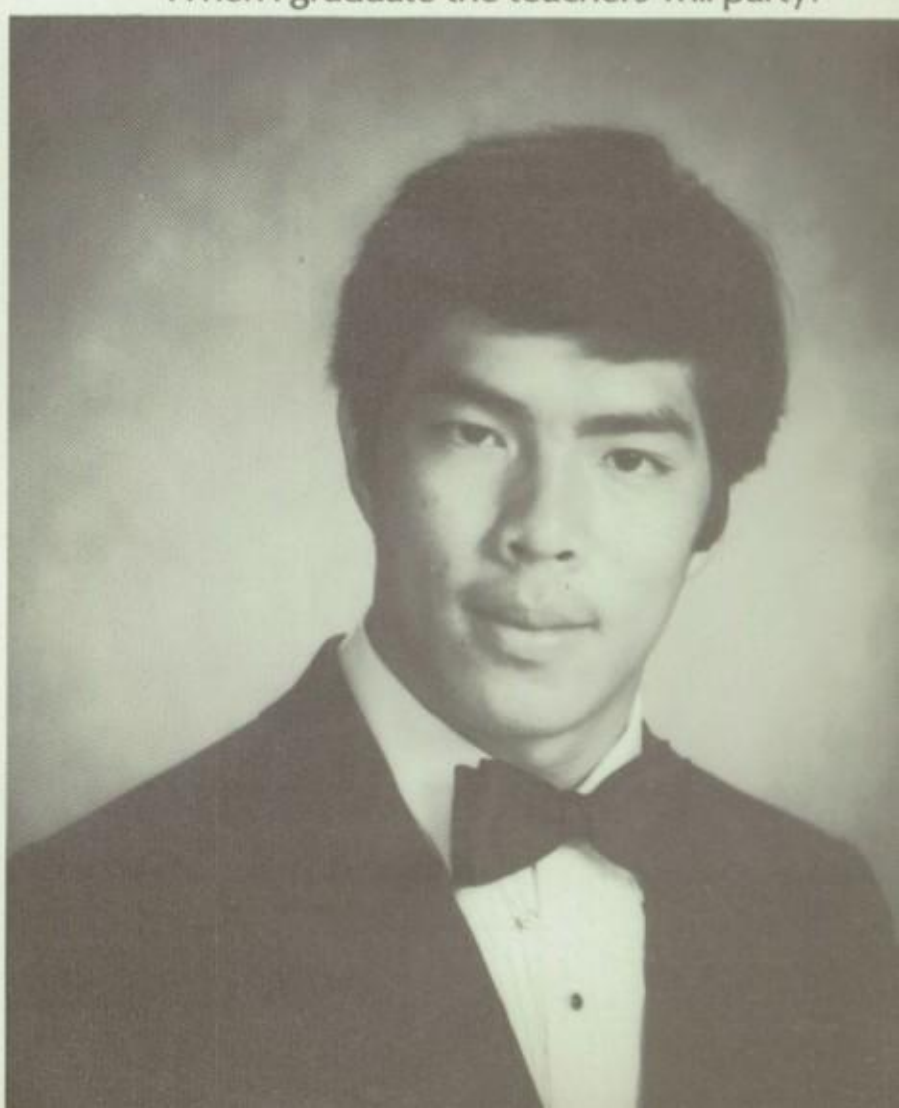


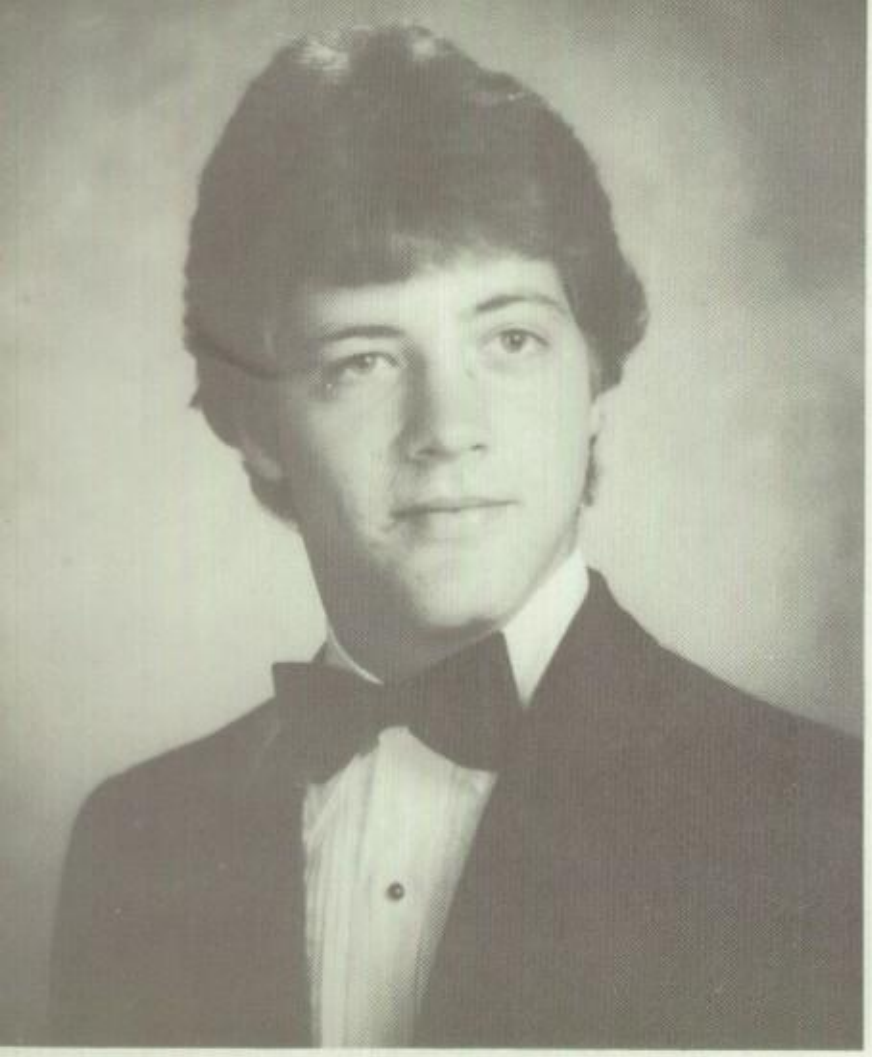
Susan Redding
Success is getting what you want. Happiness is wanting what you get.

Jesse Roberts
Go for the best, you only live once!



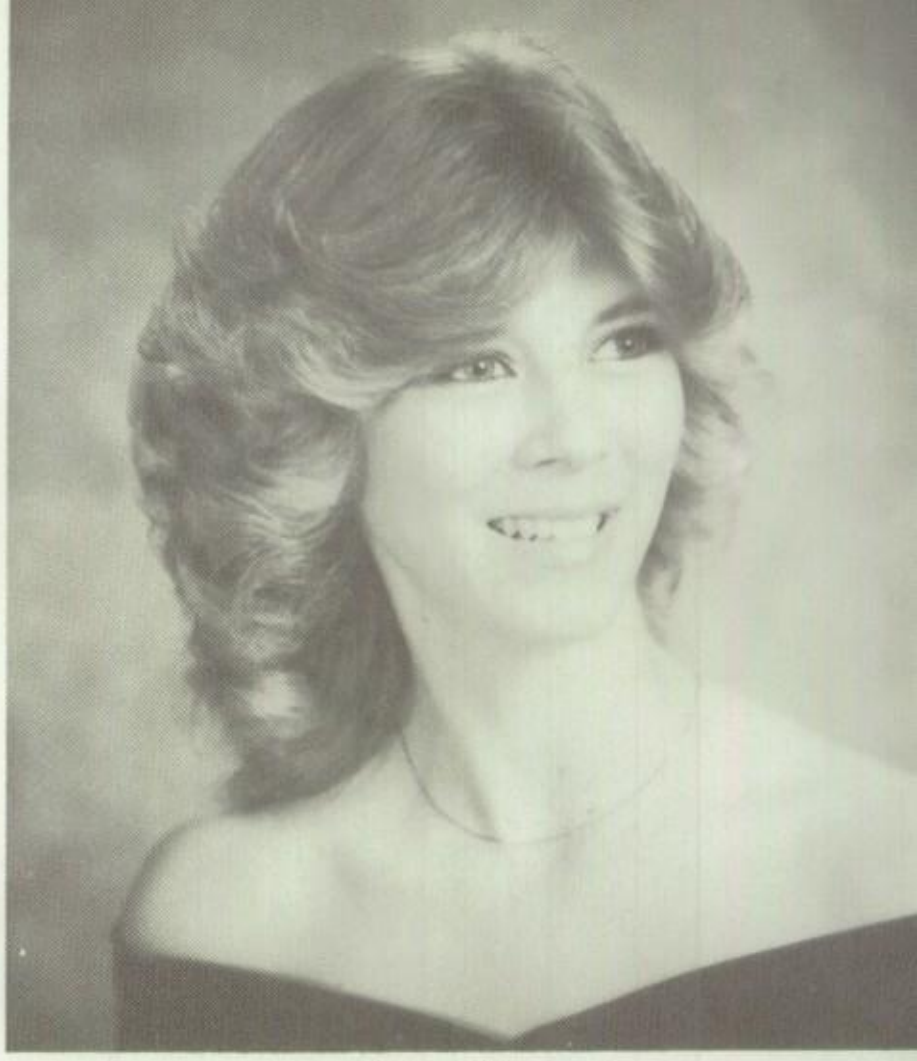
Vinh Rocker
When I graduate the teachers will party!





Chris Stephens

Accept me as I am – only then will we discover each other.



Sonya Steward

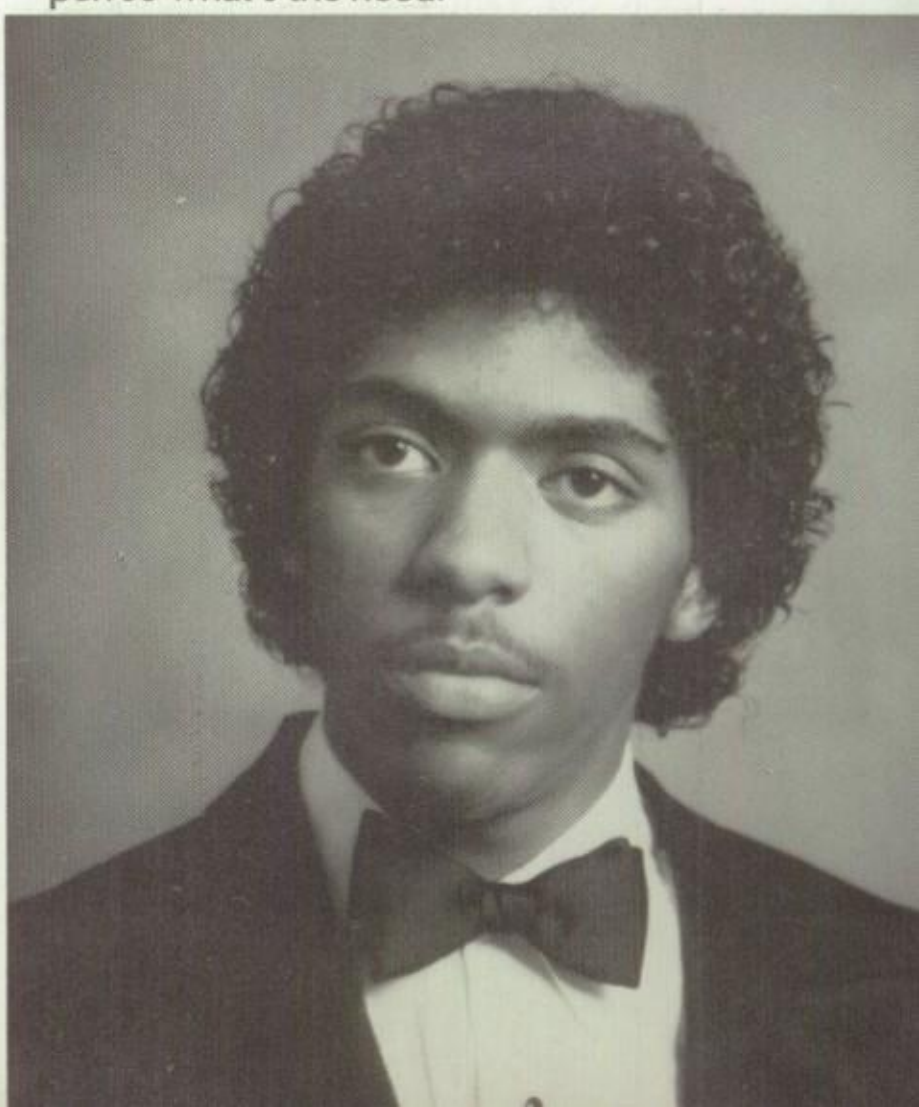
Love is caring. Love is sharing. Love is always kind, but somehow when I think of love, it's K.P. I have in mind.

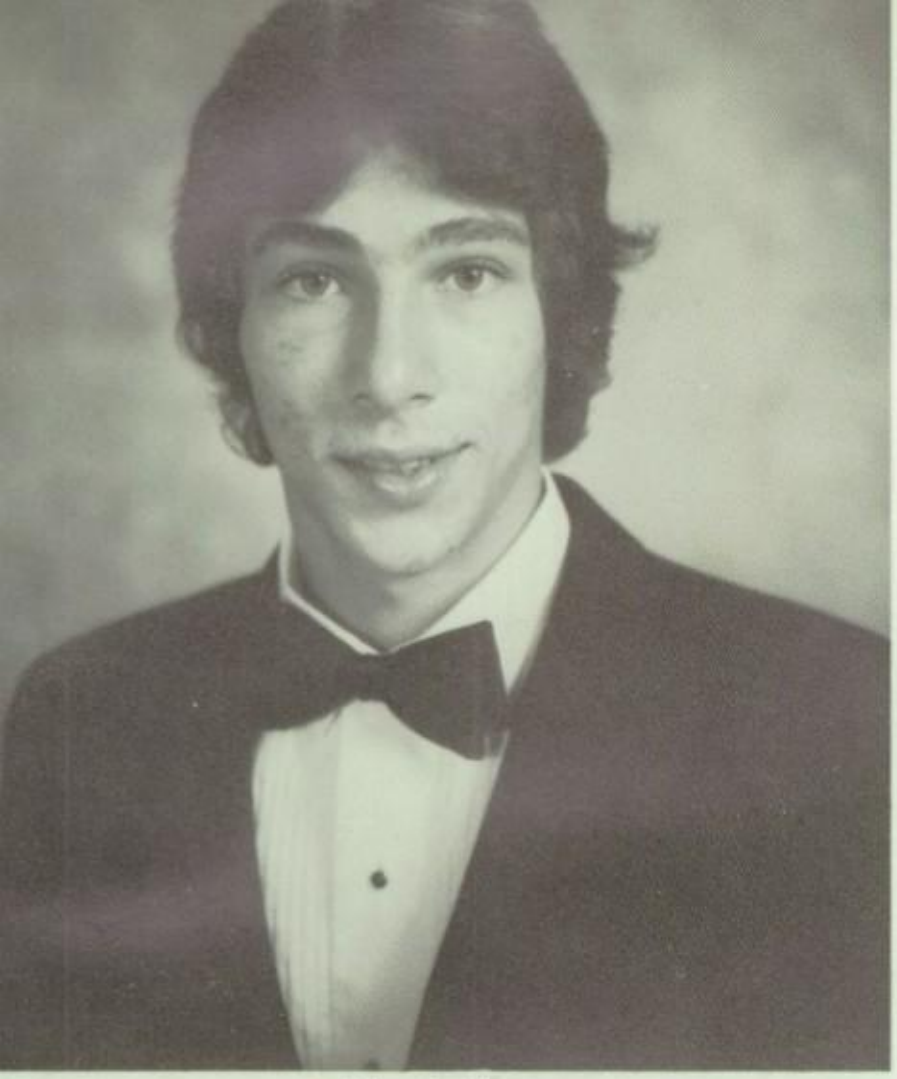
Robyn Stillwell

nowledge is gained by learning, skill by practice, nd love by loving.

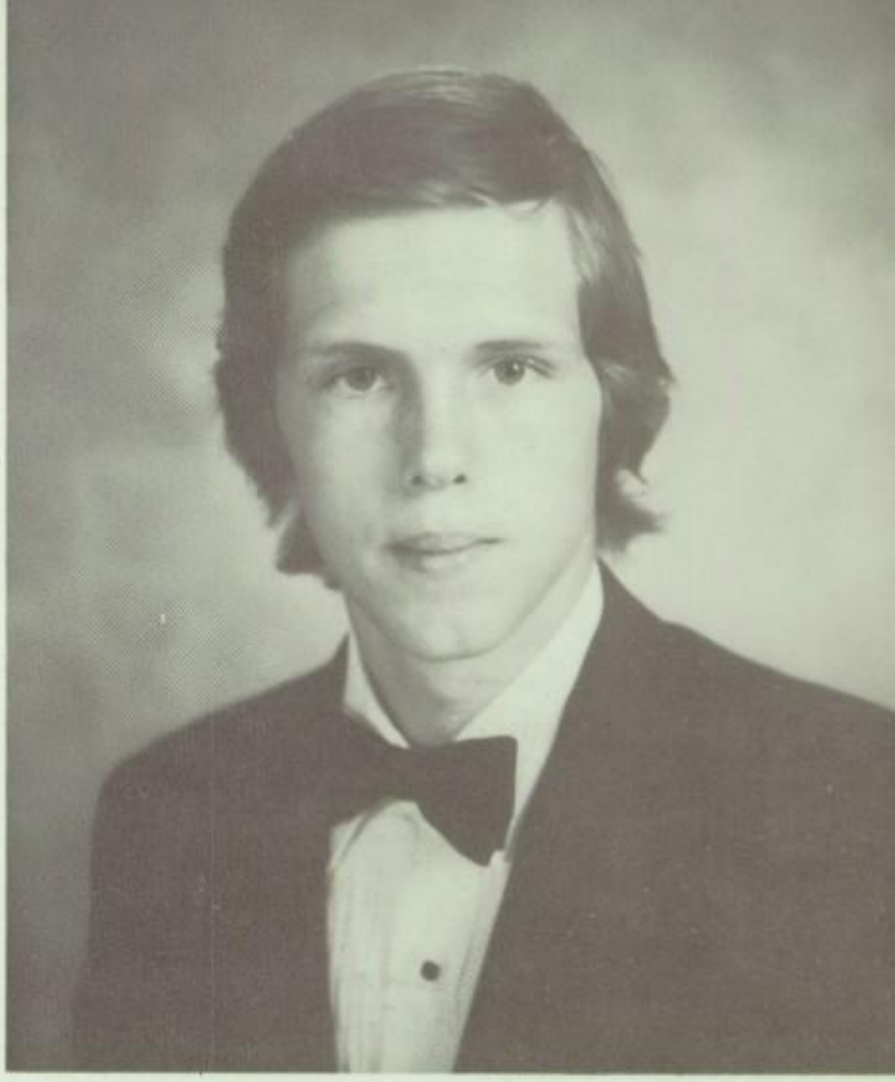
Kendall Sturkie

To hurry and worry is not my creed, things will happen so what's the need.



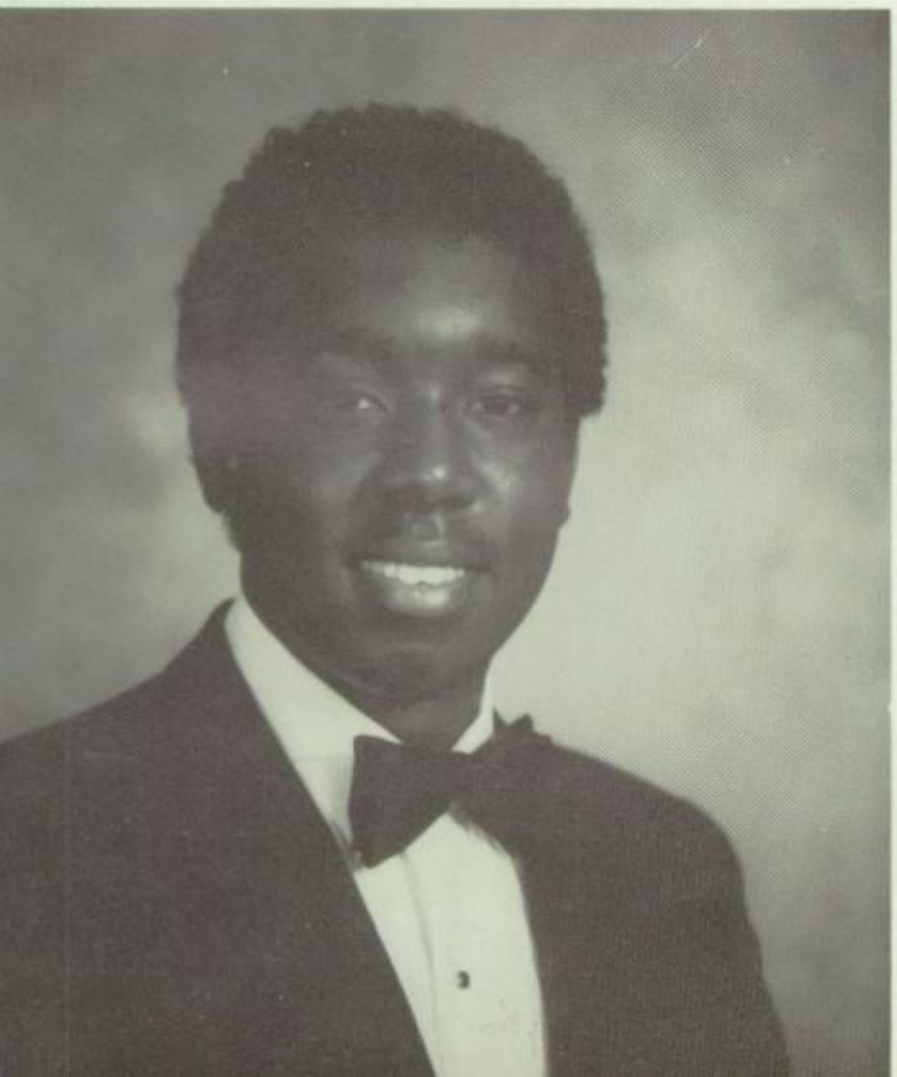


Bobby Sullivan
I don't want much in life, all I want is to be happy.

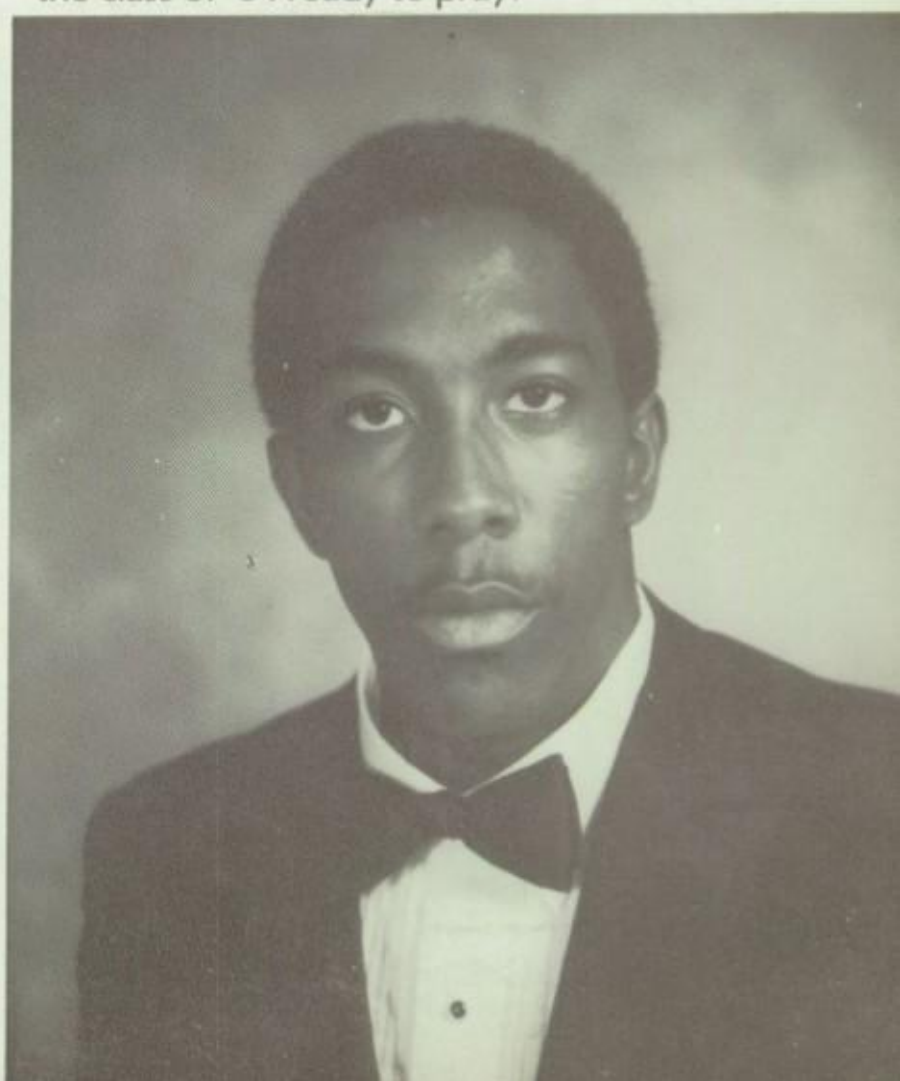


Darren Sullivan
A country boy can survive!

George Teague
I may have my faults, but being wrong isn't one of them.

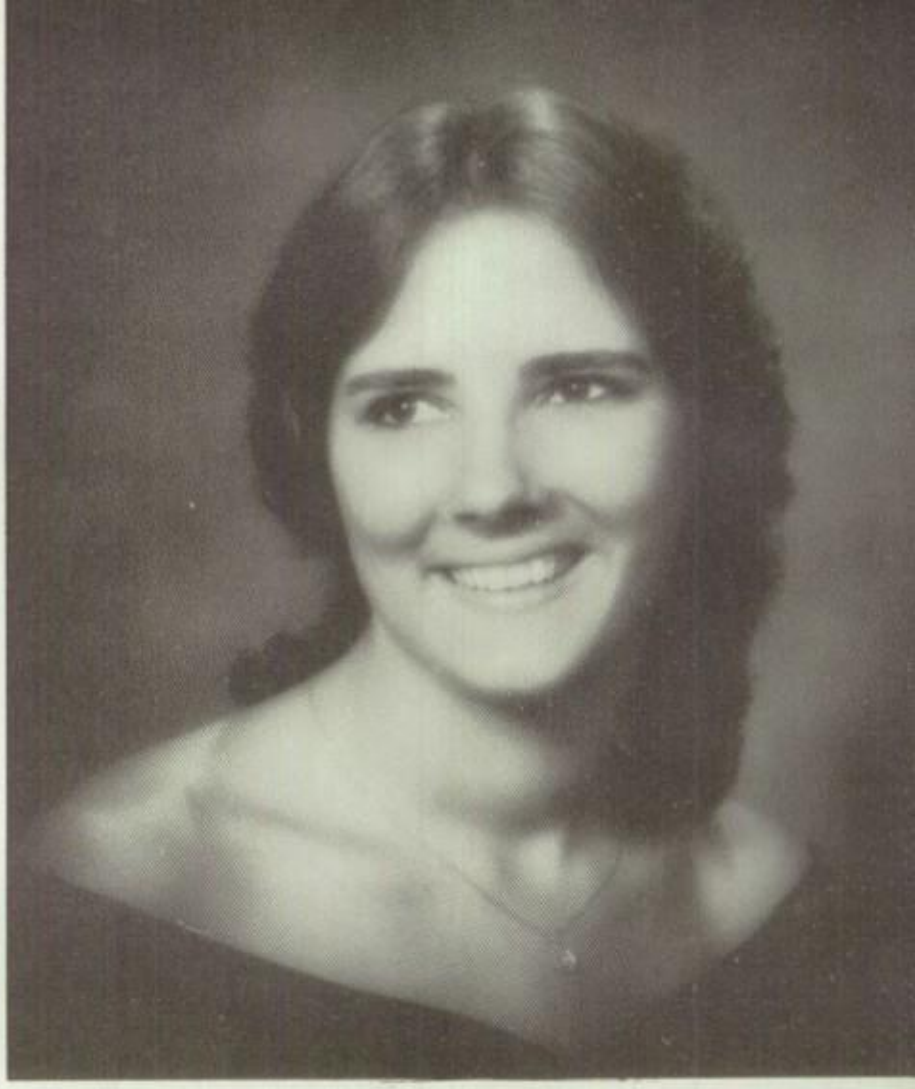


Rodney Thomas
We walk in school on a warm summer's day. We're the class of '84 ready to pray.



Marion Tipton

Every night I turn my worries over to God, cause I know he is going to be up all night anyway.

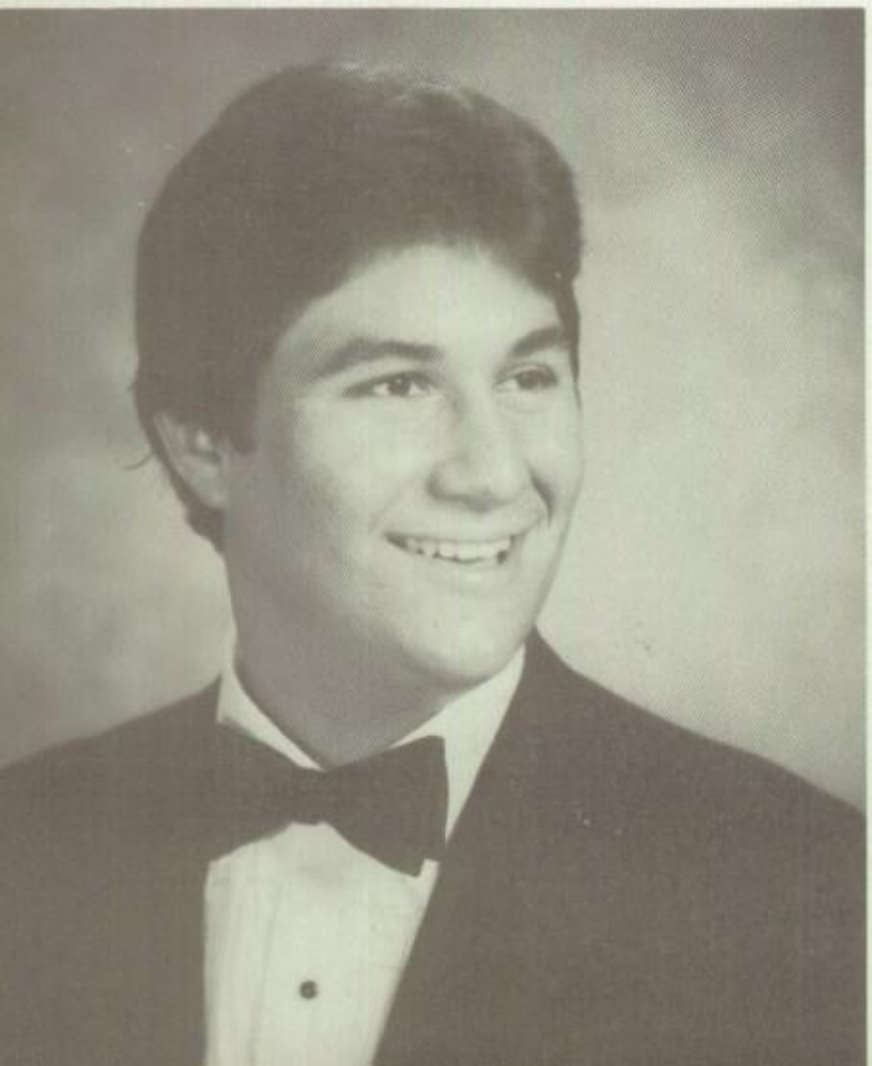


Tina Veal

The happiest people seem to be those who have no particular cause for being happy except that they are so.

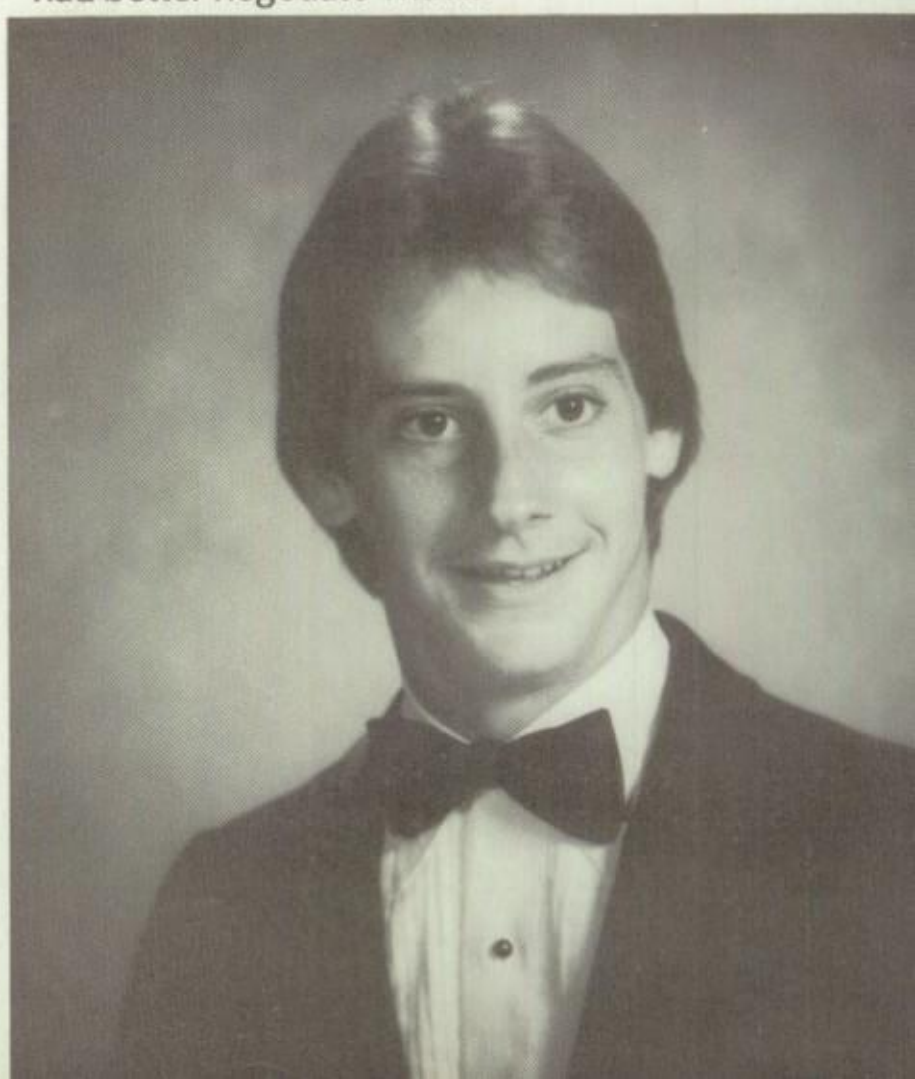
Curtis Webb

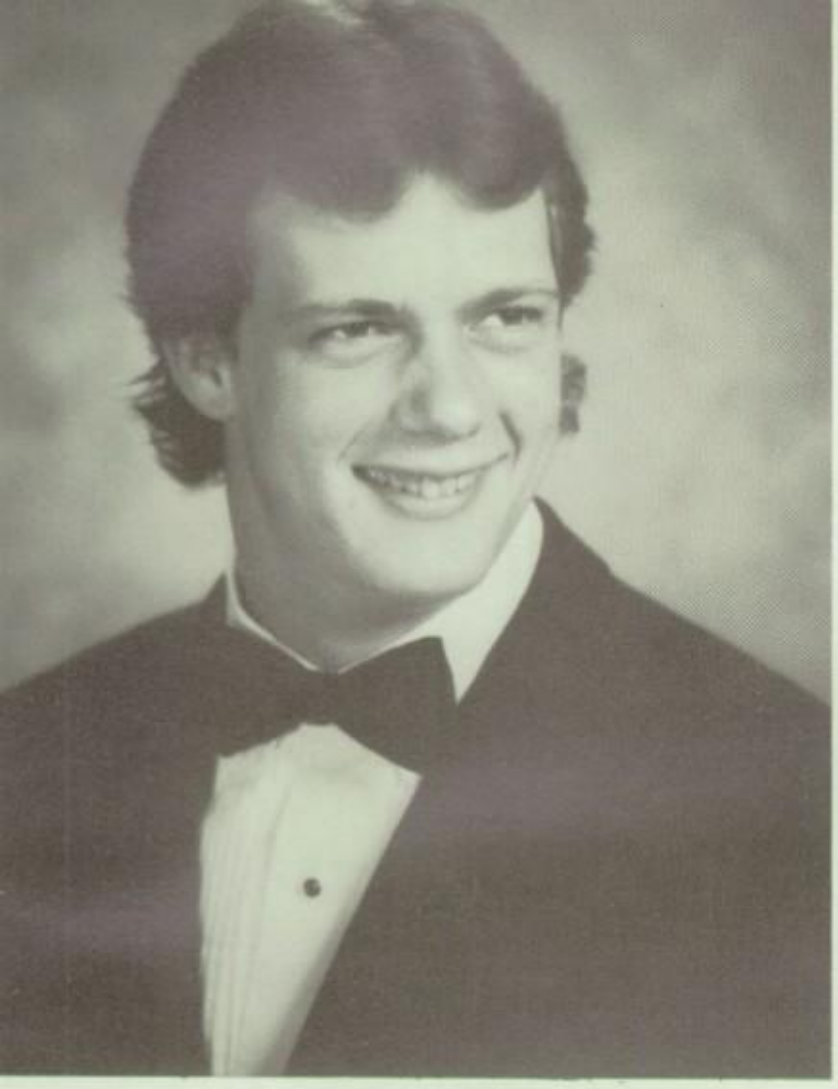
Miracles sometimes occur, but one has to work hard for them.



Terry Winn

If you can't go around it, over it, or through it, you had better negotiate with it.





Terry Wyatt

Last Will and Testament

I, Tina Adams, being of lost mind and O.K. body, do hereby leave my ability to get along with almost anybody to my brother and my friend Juanita P.

I, Karen Austin, do hereby leave my love for Garfield and my excellent driving ability to Julie Bice because I know she'll greatly appreciate both.

I, Wayne "Howdy" Bailey, being of somewhat sound mind and body, do hereby leave to Stephanie "Twinkler" Stewart my ability to act crazy and "flicted" and still go through her junior and senior years.

I, Craig "Chief" Barnard, hereby leave my ability to go crazy, yell at the referees and get away with it to anyone who has the guts to be next year's mascot.

I, Connie Brewster, do hereby leave to Rossie Brewster my ability to keep up the good work and to Tom Brewster, my ability to graduate.

I, Cindy Burke, do hereby leave Miss Gatlin a quarter and she knows the reason. To Deanne and Stacey, I leave my promise to pray that you will not have lunch with Shane M.

I, Marie Clark, being of tired body and little mind, do hereby leave Ohatchee for good.

I, Diane Coley, do hereby leave to anyone who wants them, my literature and economics books.

I, Rodney Collins, leave Namon and all the boys "on the wall" the ability to be a playboy and to Curtis and Steve, the ability to graduate in the near future.

I, Dewanna Cox, being of a destroyed mind and body, do hereby leave nothing because I need everything I have.

I, Mary Crook, do hereby leave Ohatchee High School to the students to come. I am very happy to graduate.

I, Gary Dunaway, hereby leave my ability to make it through school to my sister Joan.

I, Bruce Evans, being of lost mind and muscular body, leave to the juniors the ability to act crazy and still play football.

I, Toni Griffin, being of lost mind and short body, do hereby leave all of my school spirit to the 1984 cheerleaders. I also leave my "football Friday" wardrobe to anyone who can handle it.

I, Michele Hambright, do hereby leave my ability to make, but take nothing to Frank Hambright. To the clarinet players in band, I leave my ability to cut up in class but never have to write sentences. Last, but not least, I leave an everlasting friendship in Marcella, Cynthia, Beverly, and Joyce.

I, Connie Hanner, being of sound mind and short body, leave to the O.H.S. Band all of my great memories and to the 1983 Flag Corps, my love.

I, Shirley Haynes, being of crazy mind and unsound body, leave Anita C., Dan M., and Juanita P. all my love and blessings.

I, Steven Craig Kirkland, do hereby leave Ohatchee High School for good. Good luck to the juniors and Curtis Webb in Miss Gatlin's class.

I, Shirley Logan, being of sound mind, do hereby leave to Cindy Johnson the ability to make it through her next two years at O.H.S.

I, Lisa Martin, being of sound mind and skinny body, do hereby wish to my sister Charline all the luck in the world in passing Miss Gatlin's class.

I, Neal Martin, being of no mind and muscular body, leave to all the seniors of 1985 Miss Wiggins and her wonderful class. I leave to Miss Gatlin an 11 X 14 picture of me so she won't be heartbroken.

I, Eric Mashburn, leave to #9, Tommy and Chris the best school year ever. I also leave Bobby, Corey, Rodney, and Bird to carry on the tradition of the American Cowboy.

I, Douglas McDowell, being of sound mind and super body, leave my kamikazi driving skills to Joe Carter, my locker to anyone who can open it, and my view on the cosmos to Mr. Pruitt.

I, David Nance, leave to David Williams my ability to cheat on soil tests and still have a good time. To Dana N., I leave the Nance family tradition to uphold. Give them heck.

I, Anna Parnell, being of absent mind and weak knees, leave to Miss Gatlin a fingerprint kit and a shell necklace to wear in London. And to David A. and Keith M., I leave registration papers for a speech class and to Ricky P., lots of luck. Last of all, I leave Ohatchee High School — gladly!

I, Timothy Phillips, being of bizarre mind and willing body, do hereby pass on Jack Bennett's class-disturbing wit to Joseph Carter and Chris Ogles; and I leave Ohatchee School as fast as I can.

I, Joan Poole, being of sound mind and body, leave to Kristy Whitten the ability to cut up in Miss W's room and not get sent to the office and to the Ohatchee Band, all my love.

I, Sam Ramsey, being of unsound mind and tired body, do hereby leave all the bruises at the lunch table to Pam Dover, Bubba Woodall, Todd Cosper, and Craig Harrell; and I leave my driver's manual to Mandy Nunnelly.

I, Tommy Reaves, being of unsound mind and weak body, do hereby leave summer practice to Cousin Milky and my ability to dip snuff in the office to Ty Hurst. To the seniors of '85, I wish the best of luck in English literature.

I, Susan Redding, being of wandering mind and somewhat sound body, do hereby leave Sherry R. the ability to get what she wants and still look innocent and to "Peehop" and "Duwad" the ability to party on Saturday dance night and still be able to walk straight the rest of the week. And to Miss Gatlin, I wish the best in keeping her cool with another group of seniors.

I, Vinh Rocker, being of used mind and unclean body, do hereby leave to all the girls at Ohatchee a better supply of drinking water.

I, Chris Stephens, leave to Shane Mitchell my ability to skip school without being caught.

I, Sonya Steward, do hereby leave Gerald Steward the ability to pass Miss Gatlin's class and to put up with Miss Wiggins and to graduate with a smile.

I, Robyn Stillwell, leave to Kim M. my ability to drive over railroad tracks without tearing up the front end of the car; and to my brother Craig, the ability to squeeze into the top ten of the class. I also leave open the position of teacher's aide for Miss Gatlin to anyone who has the patience.

I, Kendall Sturkie, do hereby leave to Walter Sturkie my ability to shoot a jump shot and to Todd Hurst, the ability to throw a football. And I wish the O.H.S. Athletic Department the best of luck.

I, Bobby Sullivan, with unsound mind and mangled body, do hereby leave Dana Maye the ability to put up with Ohatchee High and to graduate with grace.

I, Darren "Merdock" Sullivan, being of crazy mind and tangled body, do hereby leave to the special education class the ability to stay together and to Coach Winn, the ability to teach his class with pride.

I, George Teague, do hereby leave all my skills to BoBo Brewster because next year's football practice is going to be bad.

I, Rodney Thomas, leave to my five best friends — Tom, Bernard, Kenneth, Jeffrey, and Percy, the best of luck in the 12th grade.

I, Marion Tipton, do herby leave Anita C. a "cokee-colee" and to Miss Gatlin a ticket to London and a burglar alarm. To Cindy B., I leave a year's worth of driving lessons.

I, Katrina Veal, do hereby leave to my brother the ability to make it through his senior year without failing.

I, Terry Winn, hereby leave all dark alleys in Oxford to Shane Mitchell and all the streets of Anniston after 1:00 A.M. to Mark Hale. And now I leave this school.

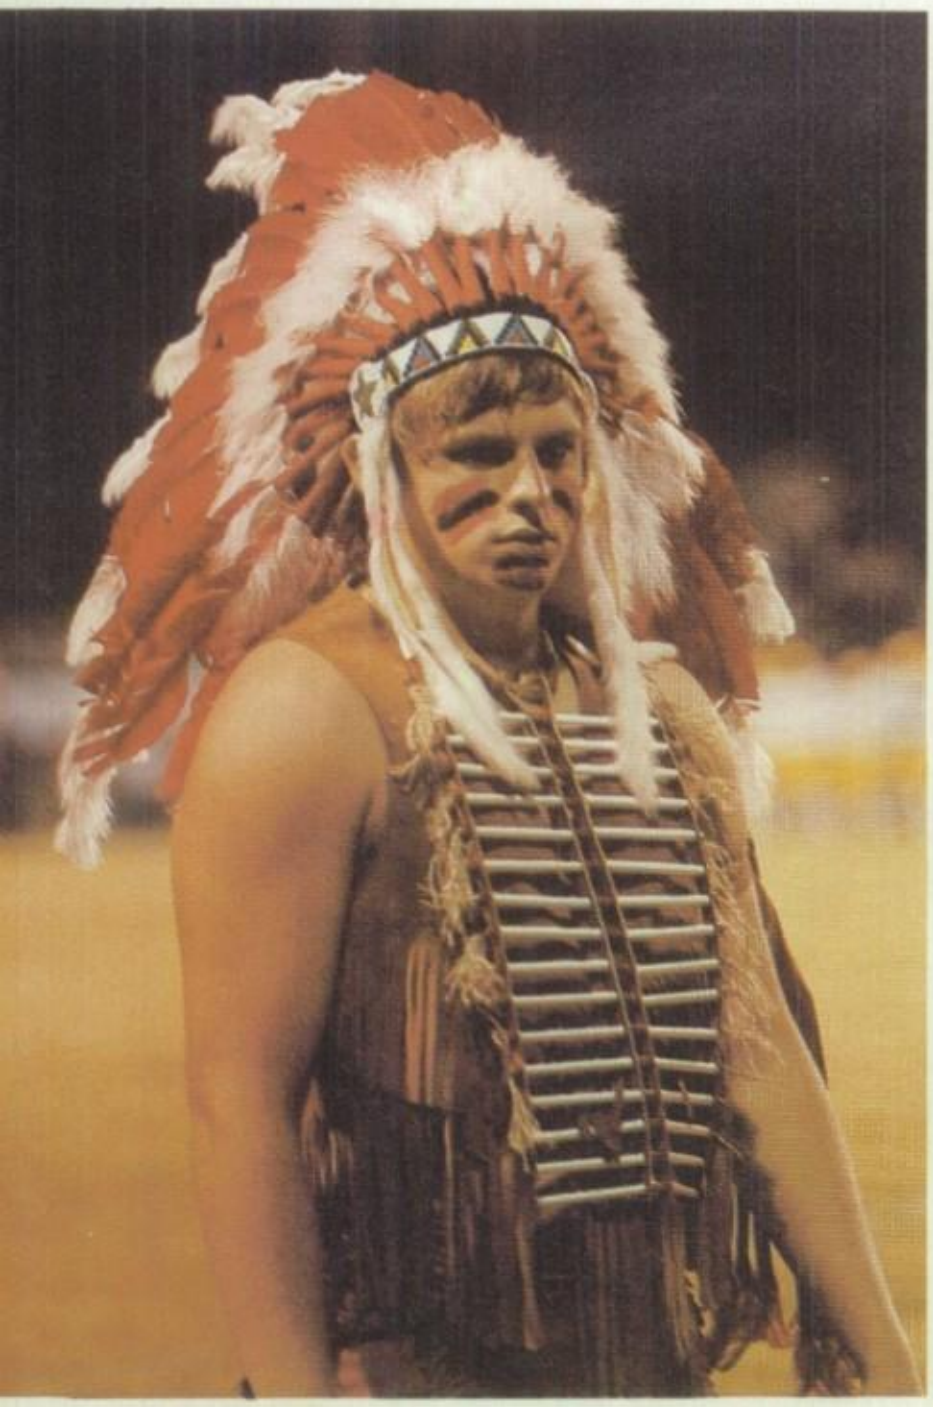
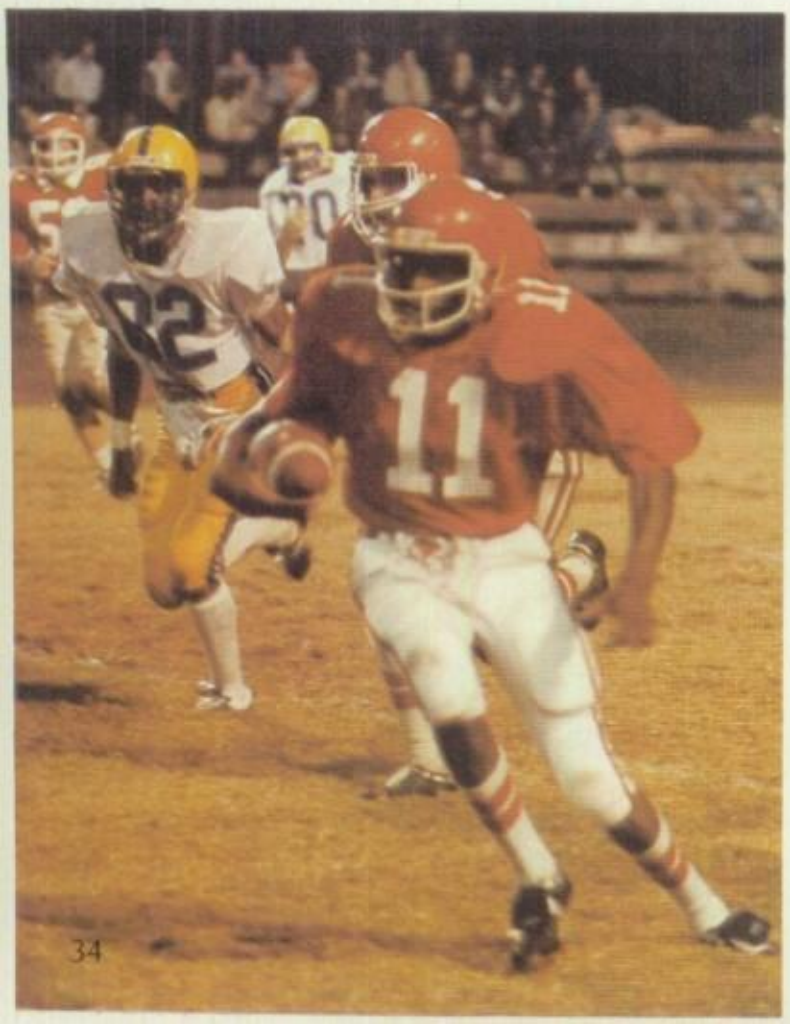
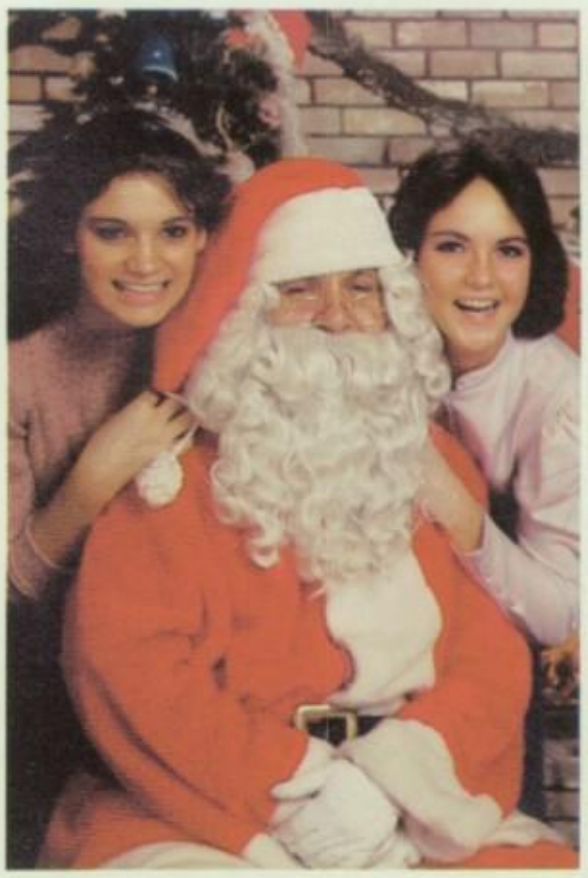
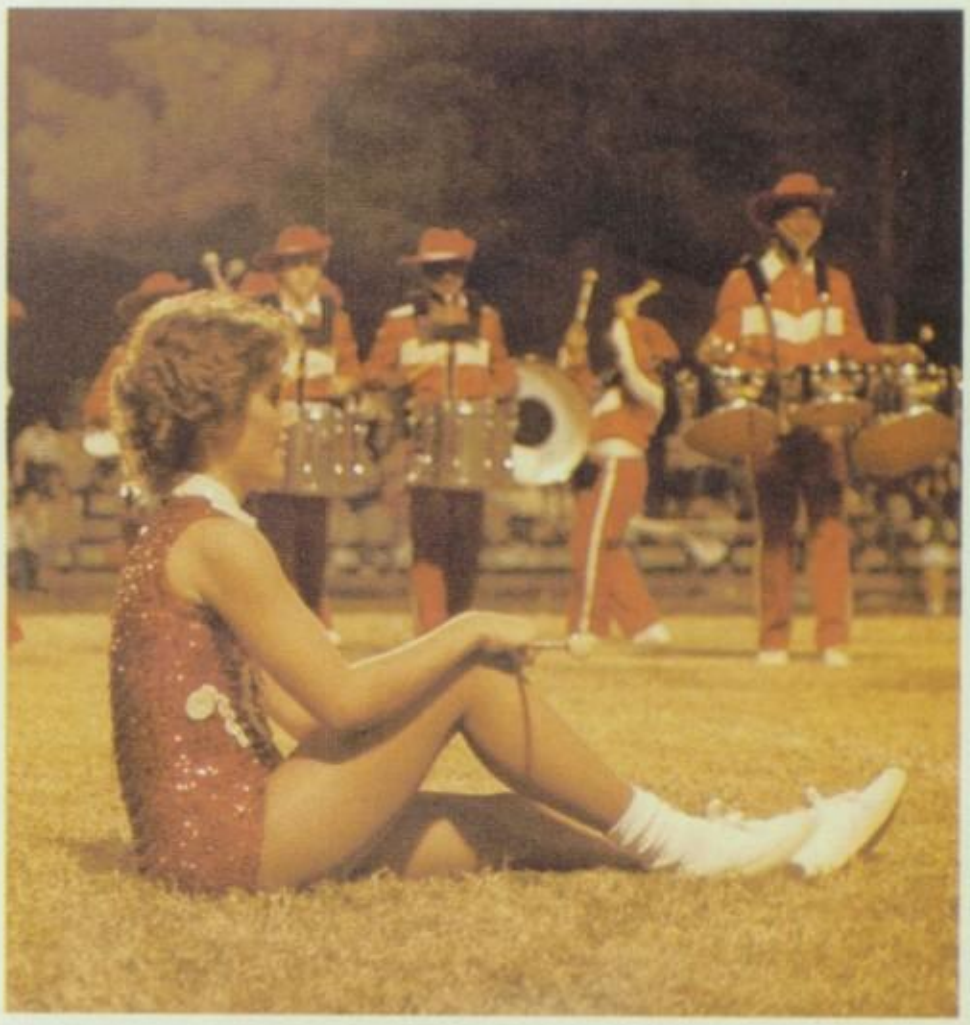
Our Times



As seniors finish their last year of high school with pep rallies, football games and other fond memories, let us not forget the friends we made that helped us through these years.



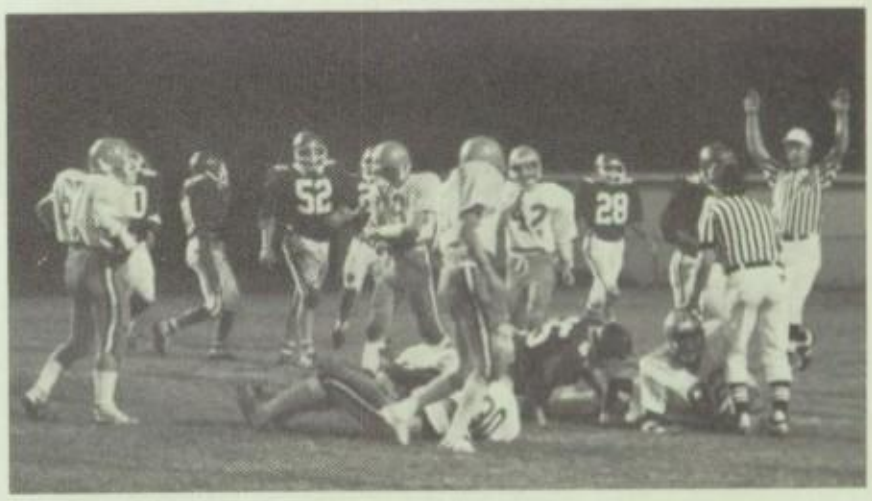


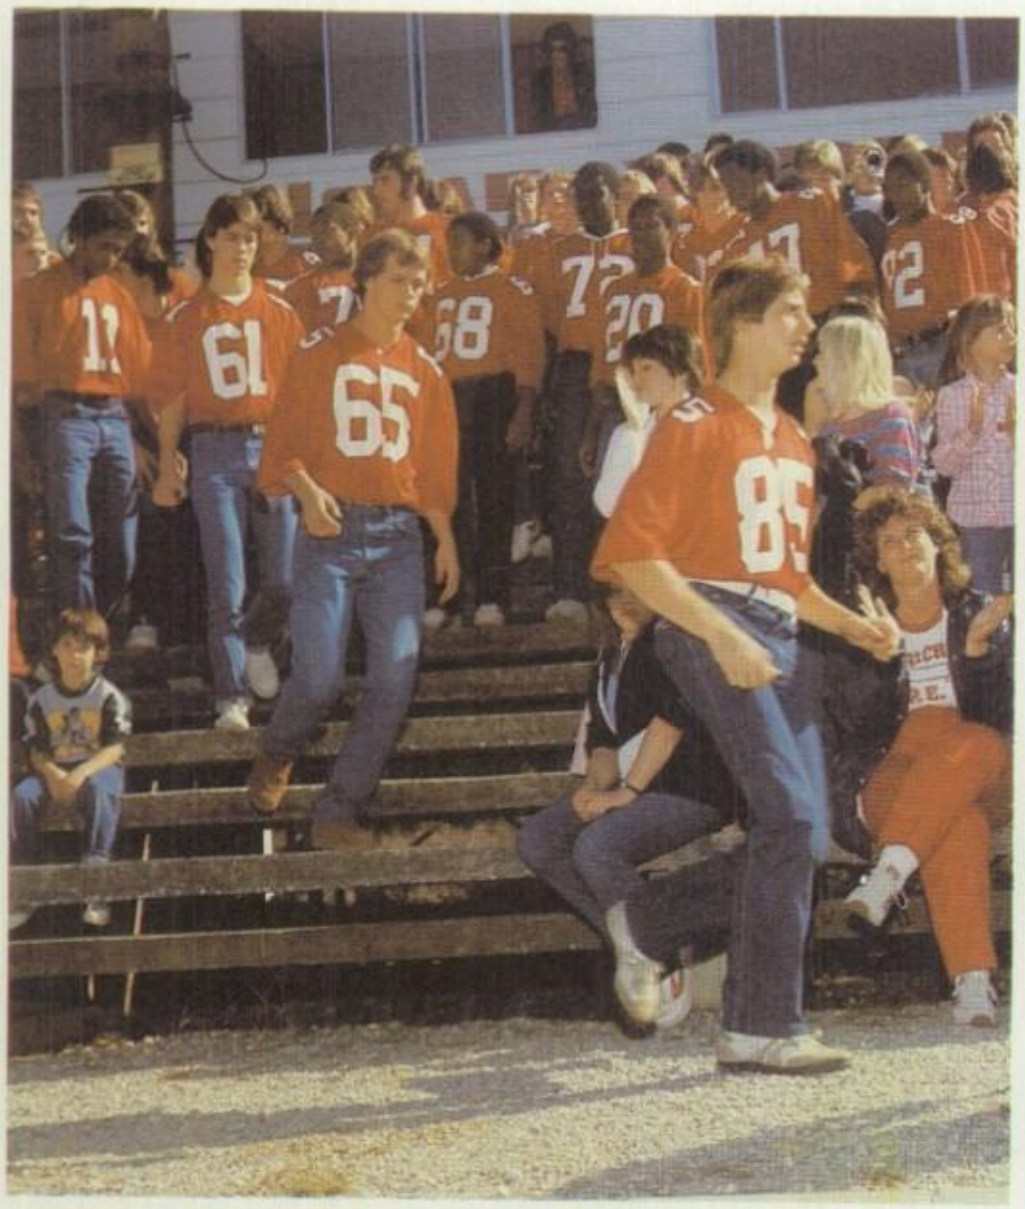


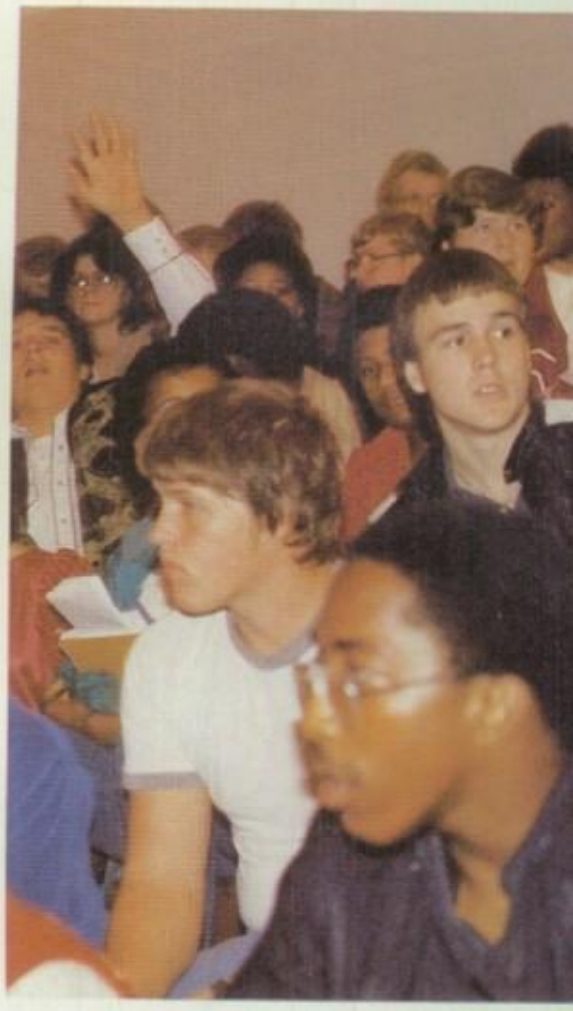
Girls are people who like to look and smell pretty! They like to go on simple dates and have a lot of fun planning them. Girls are just very special people.

Nothing's unusual about us. We know our class presidents and homecoming representatives. We have the same days, from miserable Monday's to T.G.I.F. Things that wouldn't have meaning anywhere else are a part of us.

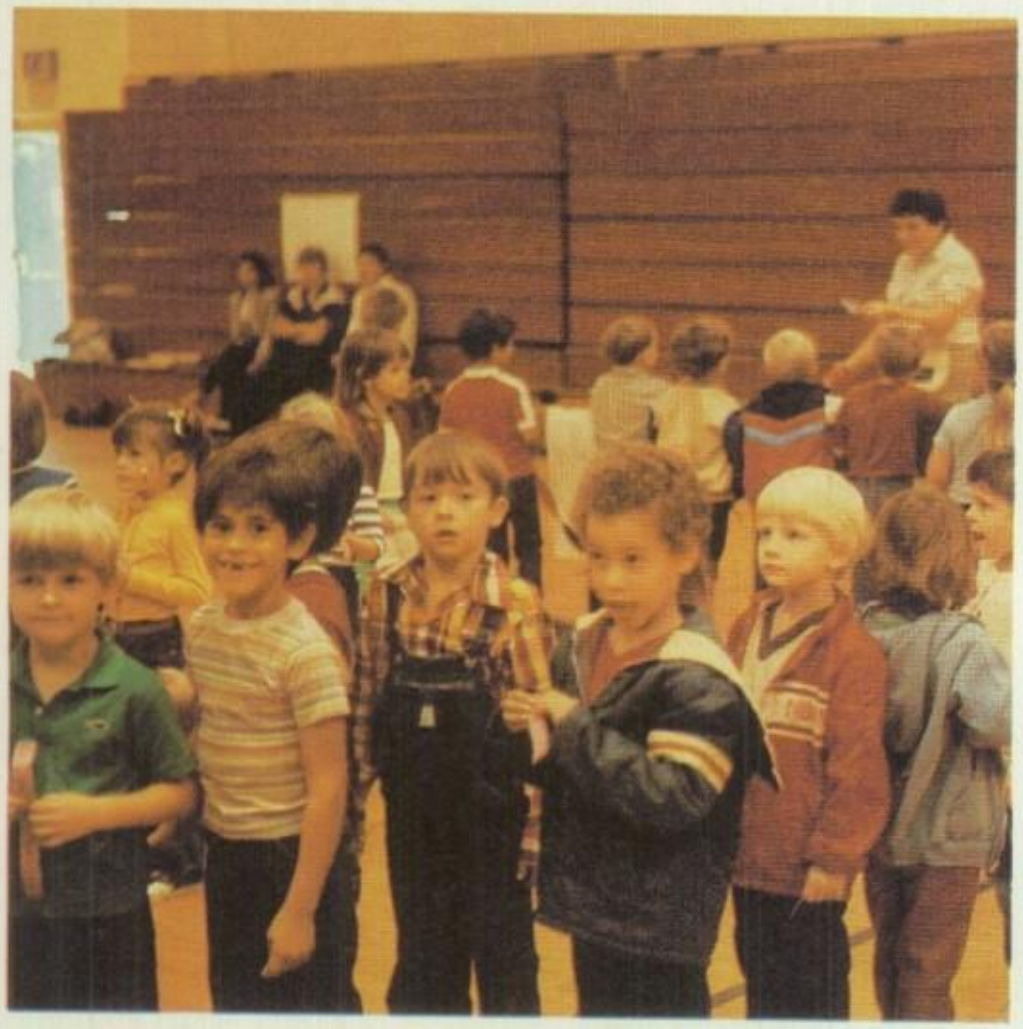
Football has its share of ups & downs, good times and bad times. Winning doesn't have to be everything. It is the togetherness we share on the field that makes the victories memorable.

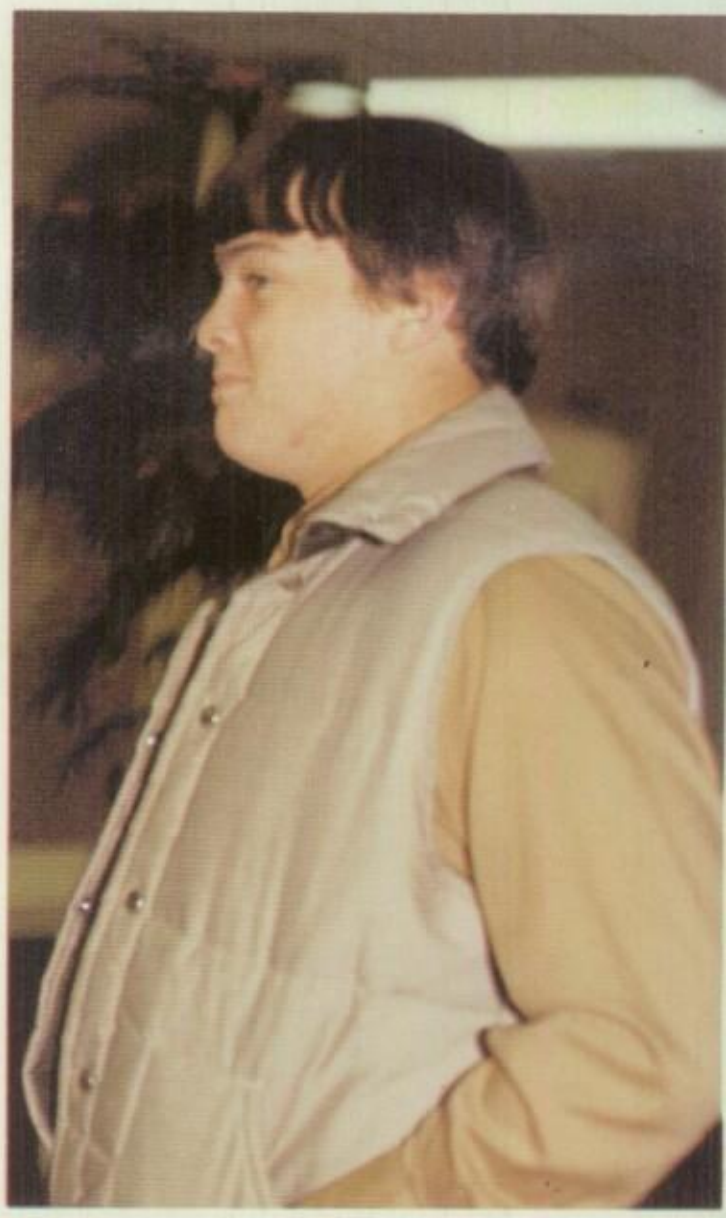




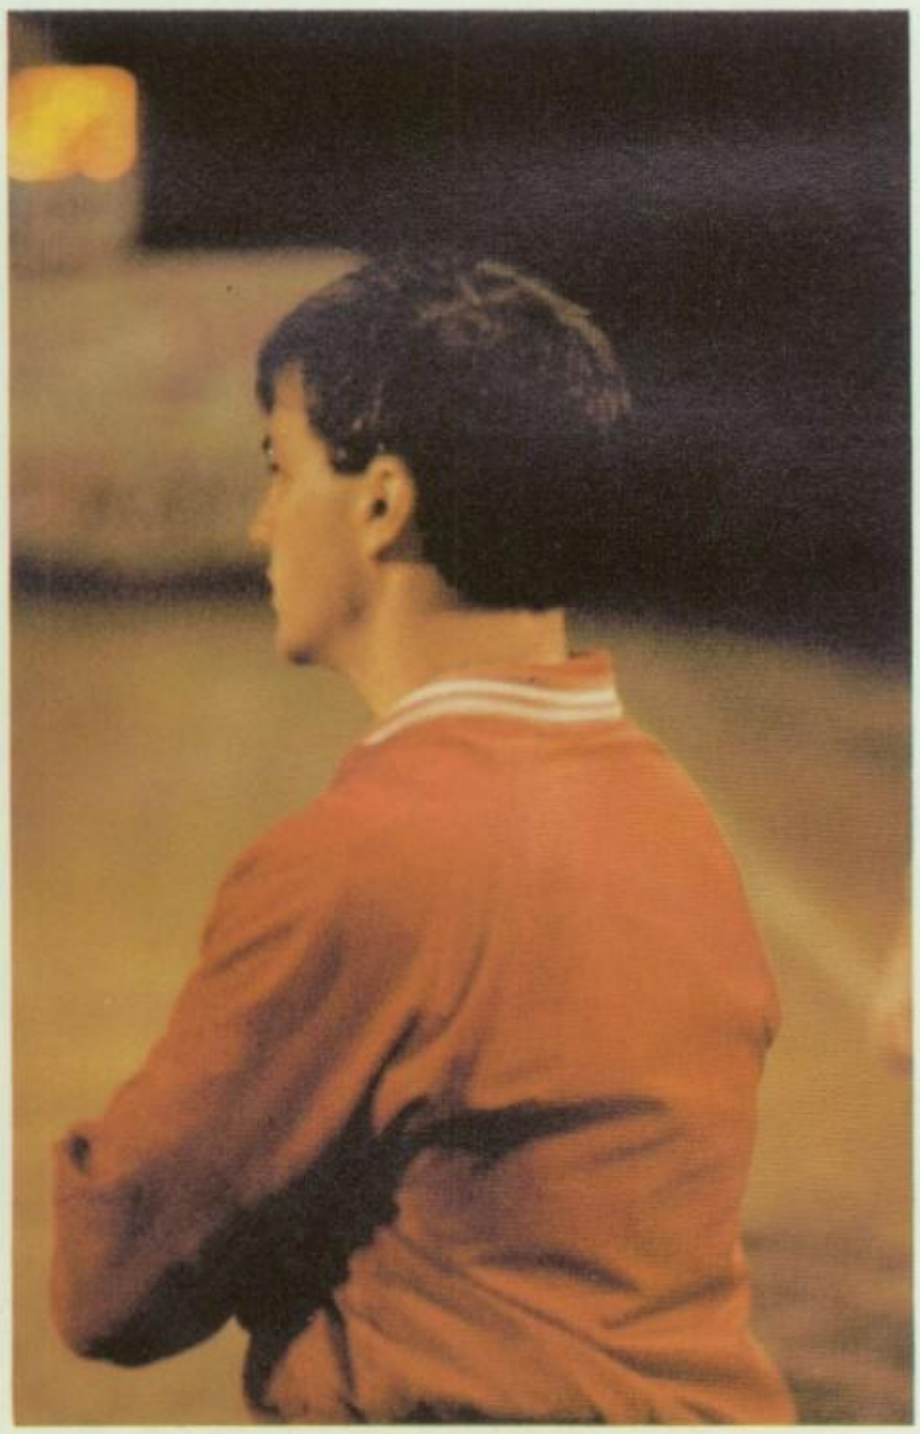


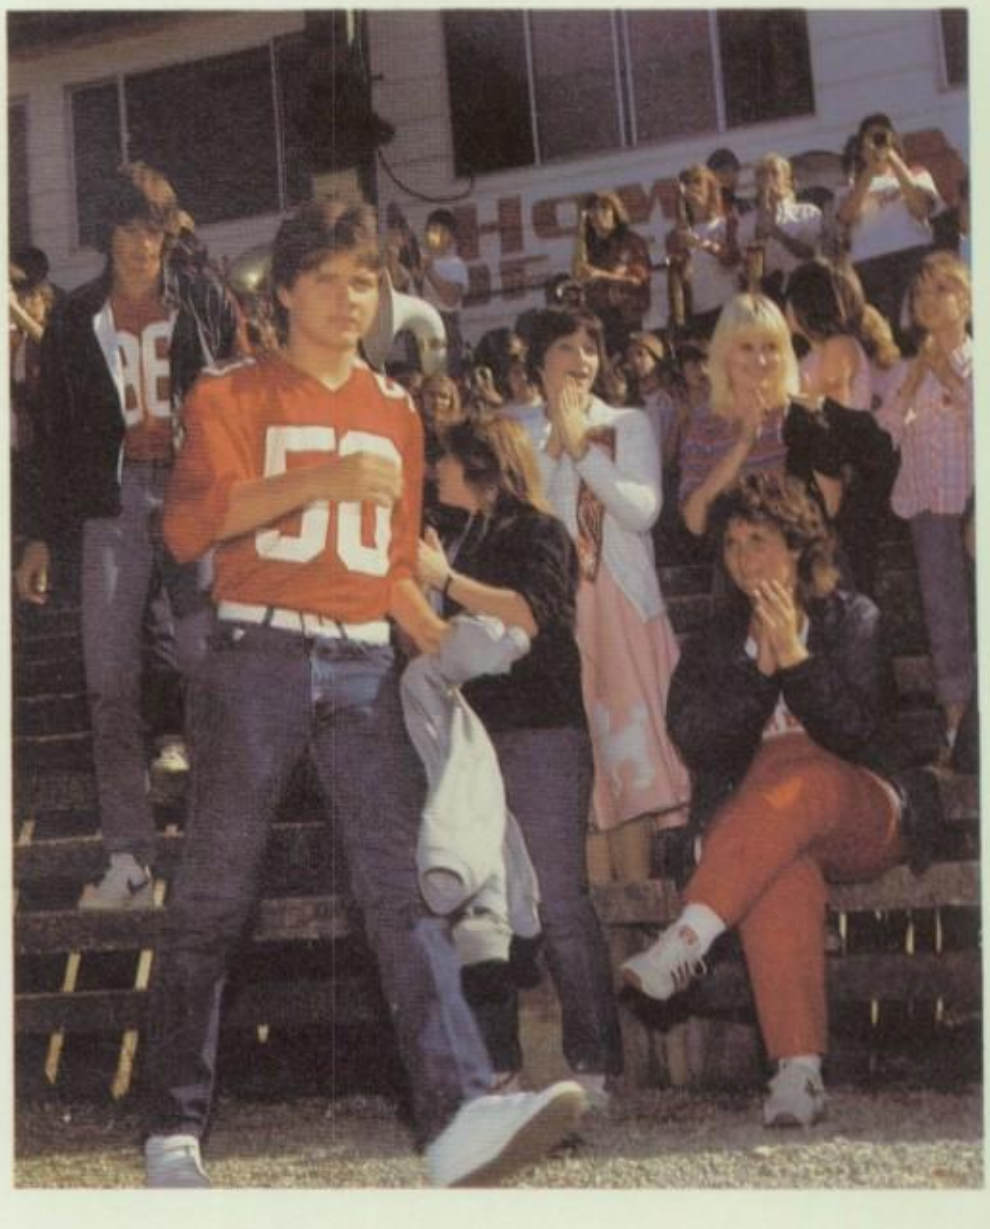
Boys are people who play ball, ride motorcycles and go out with a pretty girl every once in awhile. They are snakes and snails and puppy dog tails, but we couldn't live without them.

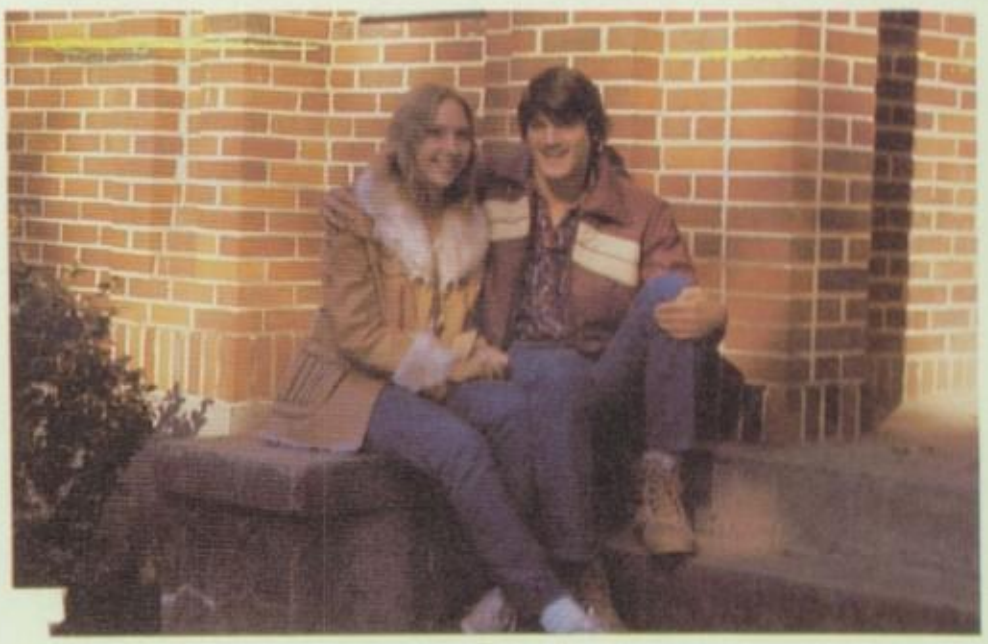


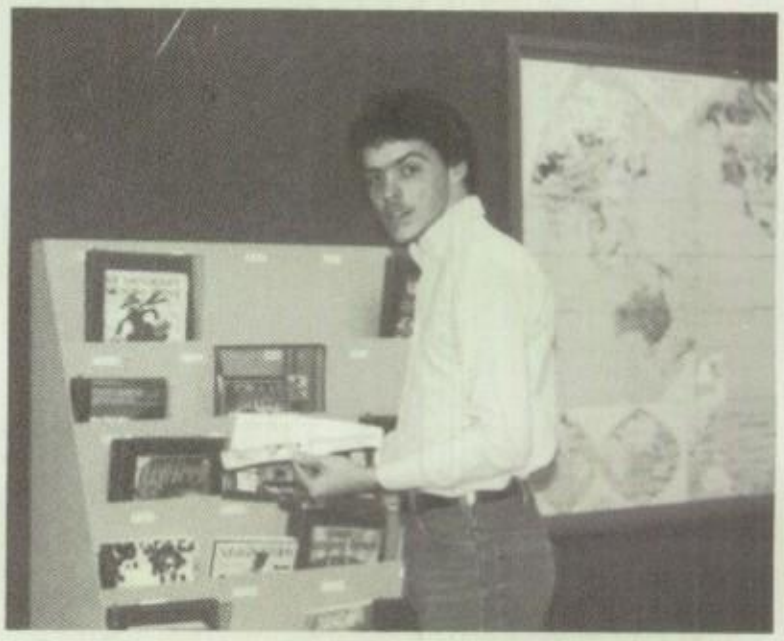


Togetherness is working together from supporting school activities to supporting our football team at pep rallies. And many of us just like the thought of being with that special someone.



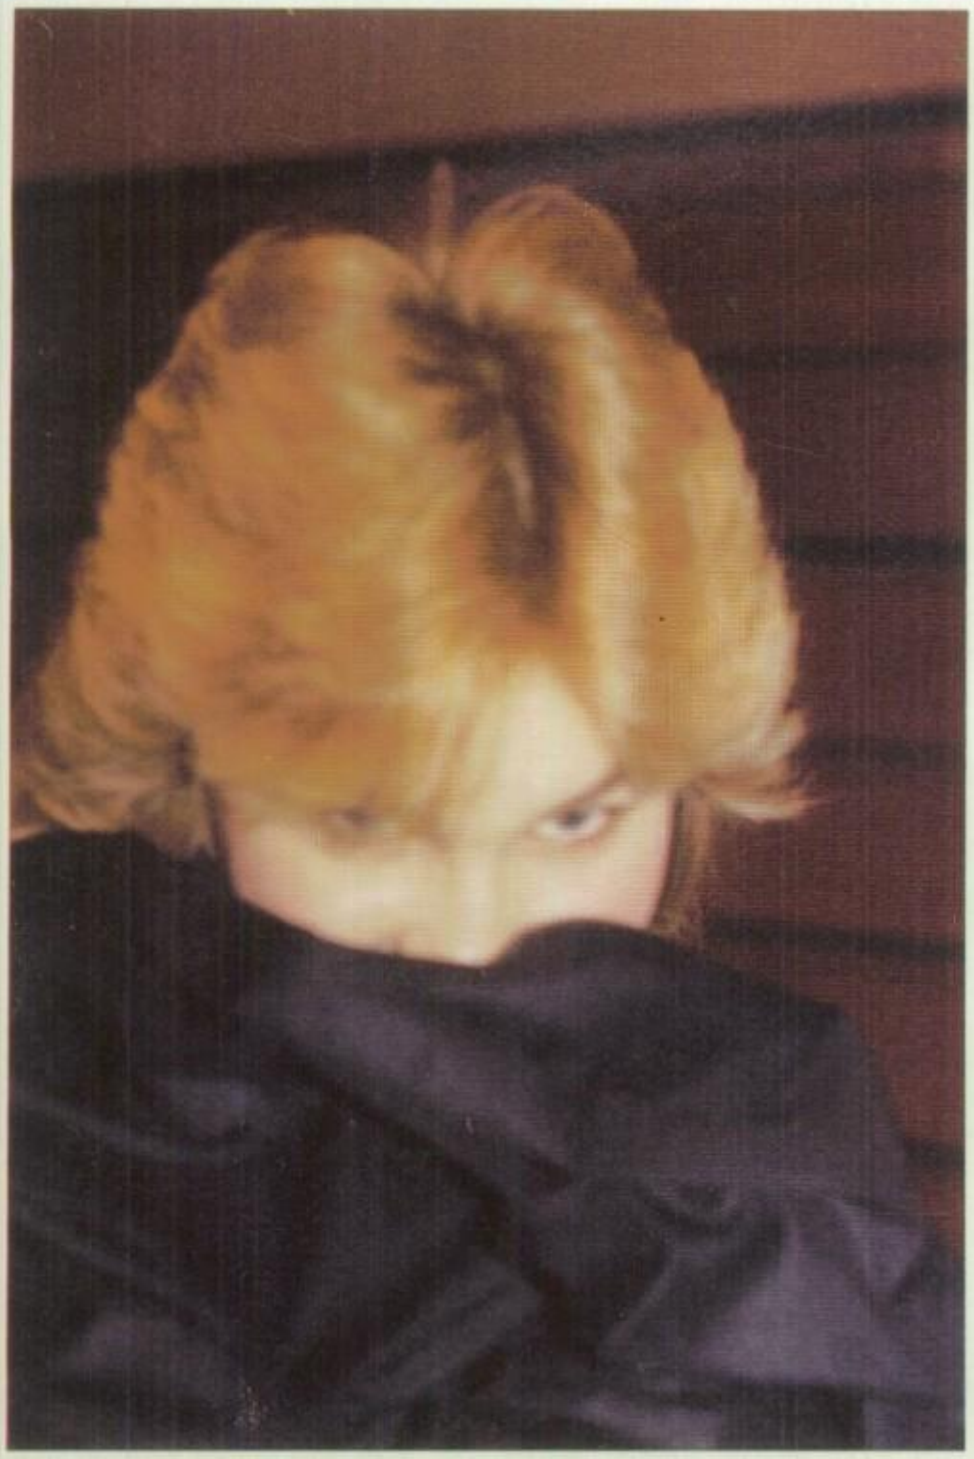




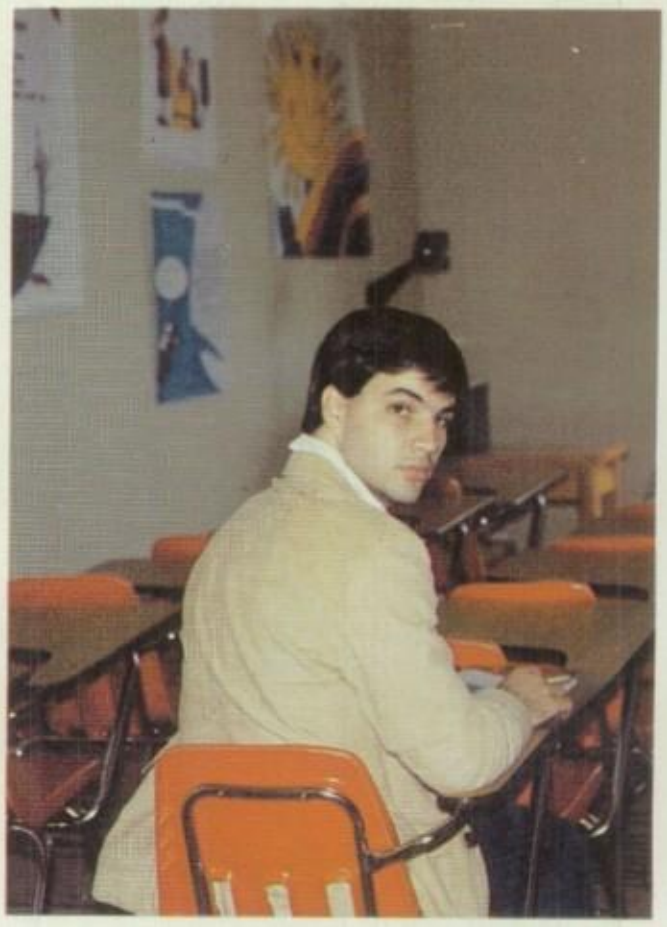


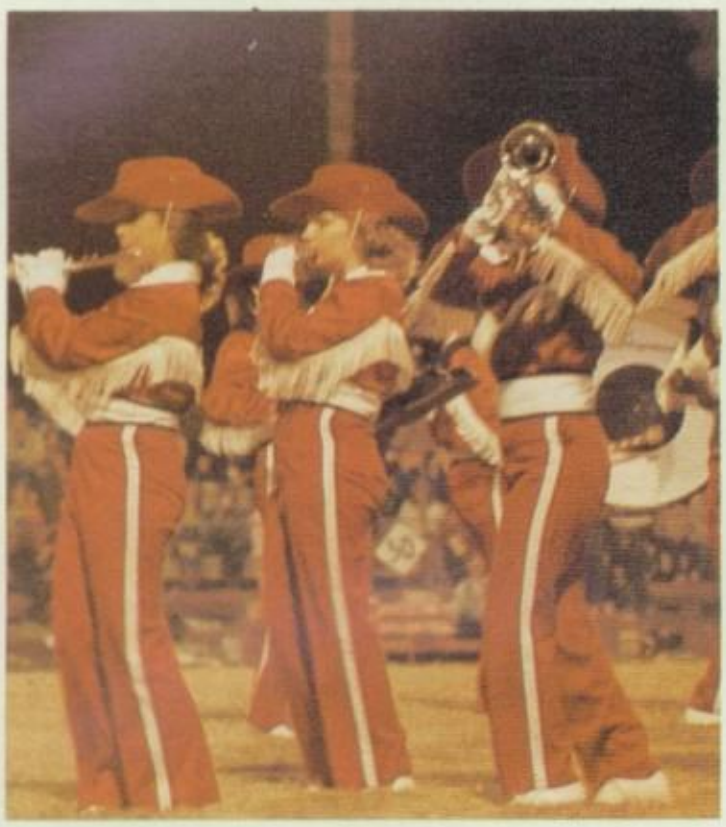
Friends now, friends forever.

Expressions make us wonder what some people have been up to or what they are going to get into. But when we look at these people we can probably tell what they have been up to.

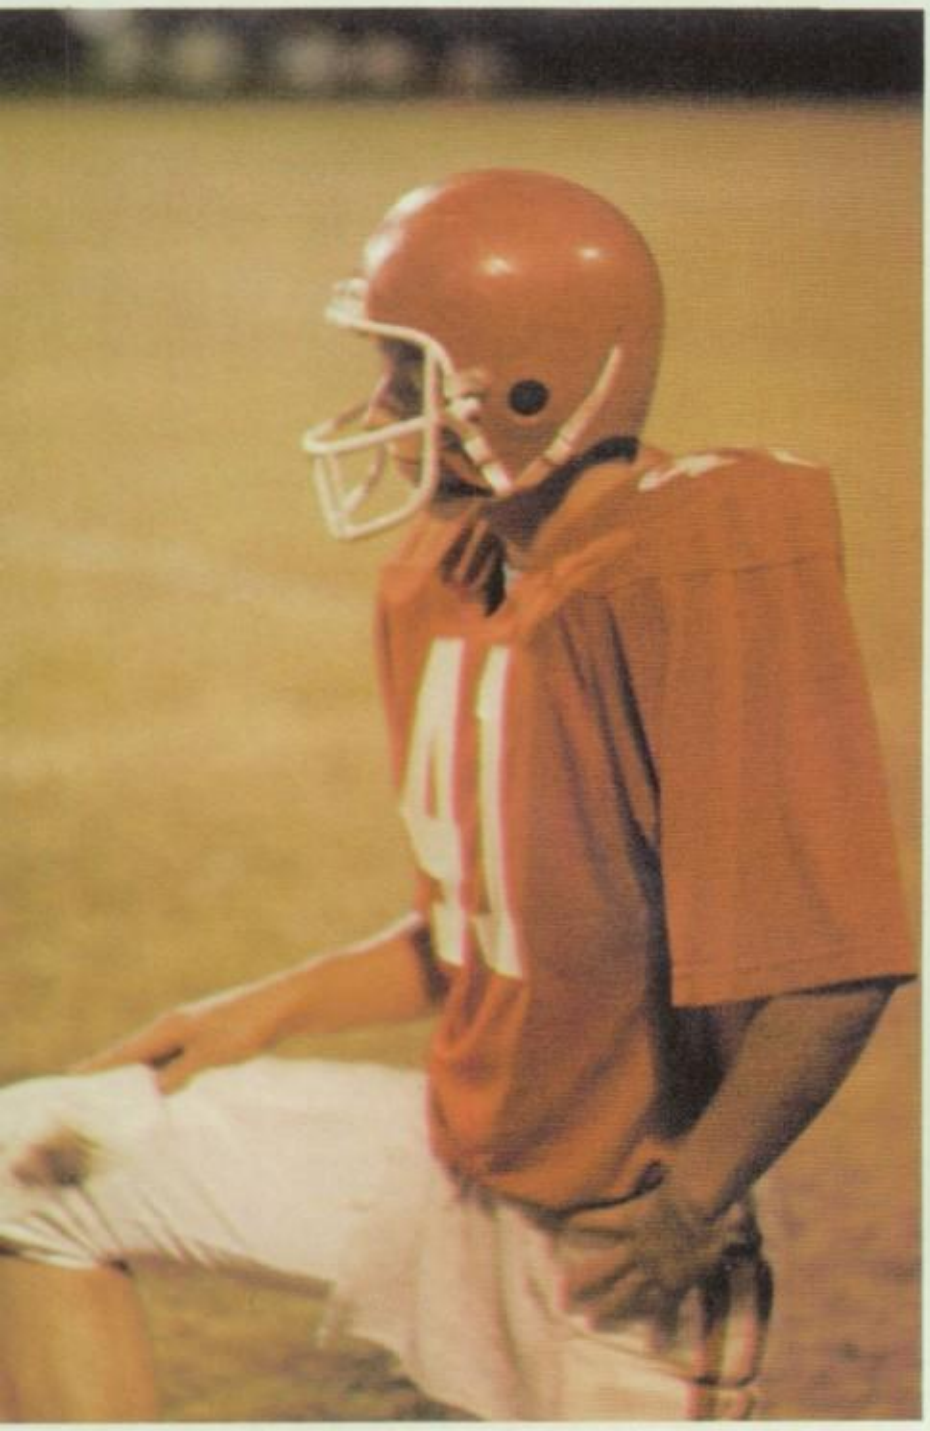


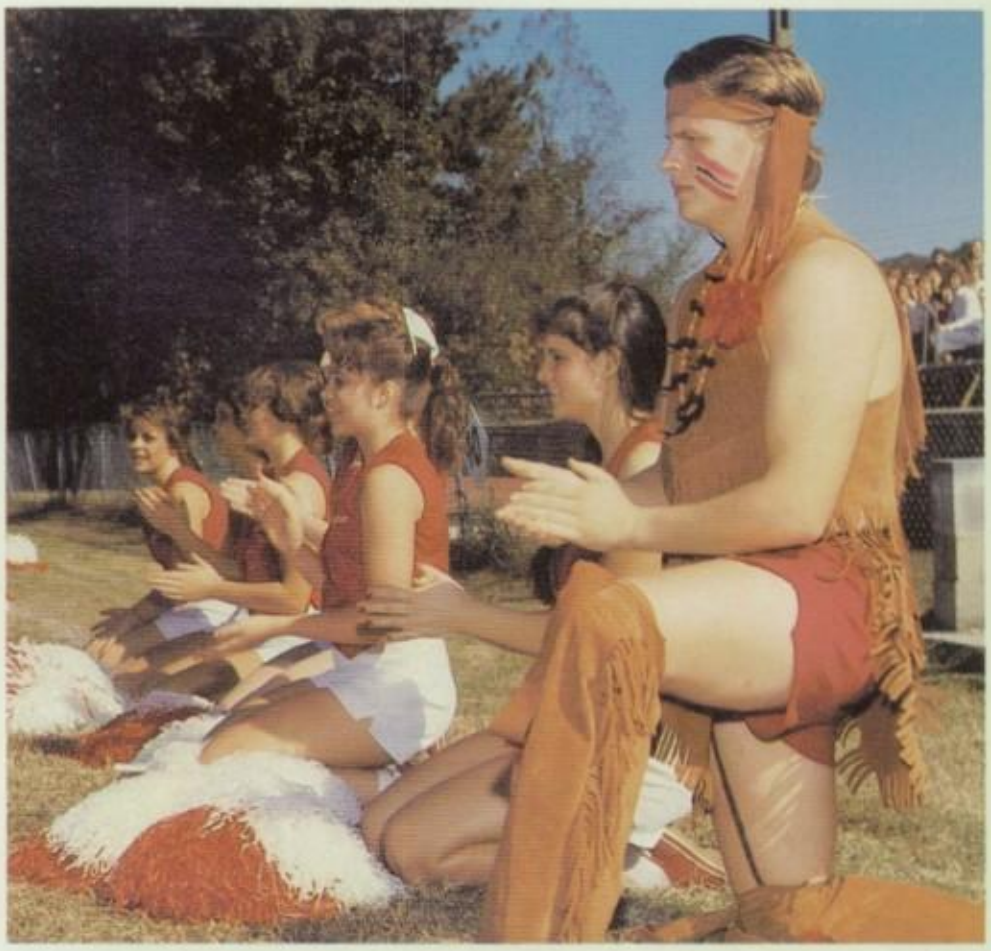
Mischievous describes many students. Some are considered the clowns and the rest are those who sit very quietly and figure out how to play their next prank. Some teachers are fortunate not to have these particular ones in their class . . . but others aren't so fortunate.





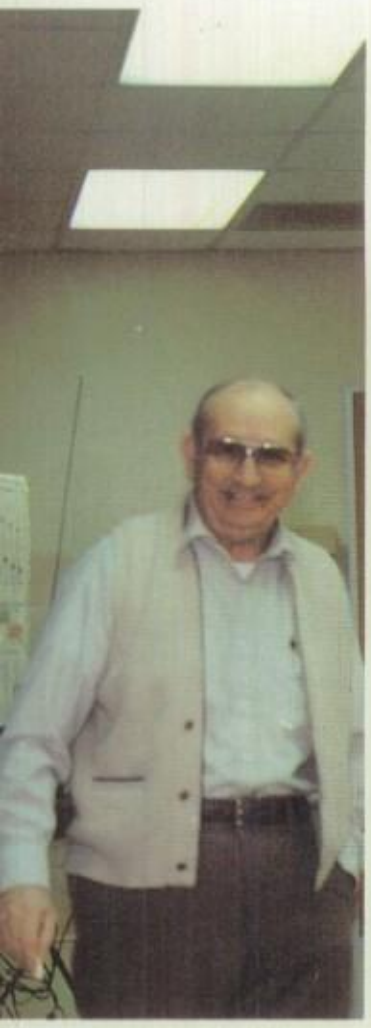
Cheerleaders spend drawn-out hours perfecting yells and going over their routines. Band members puff until they're all puffed out, trying to reach that highest note. Players lift weights and run through the drills ignoring the aches and pains and the growing feeling that they've endured about all they can. Performance will reflect pride and love for our school.



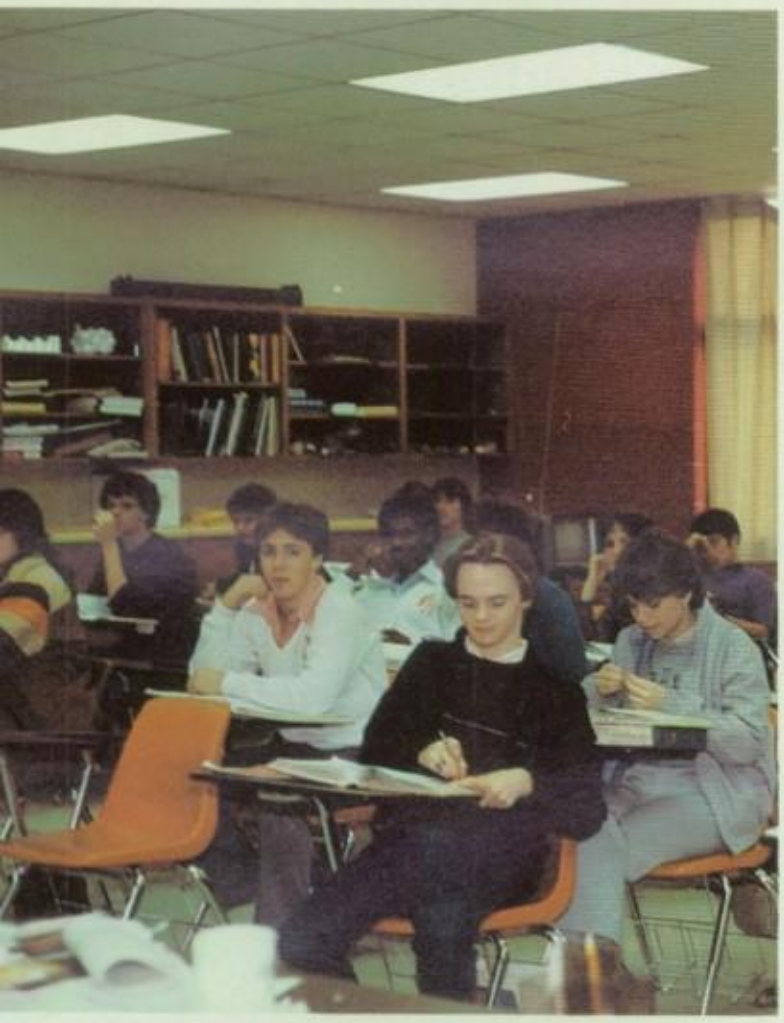


We are the same whether laughing, studying, posing, hurting, running, dancing, or playing. Life is fun and we love it!

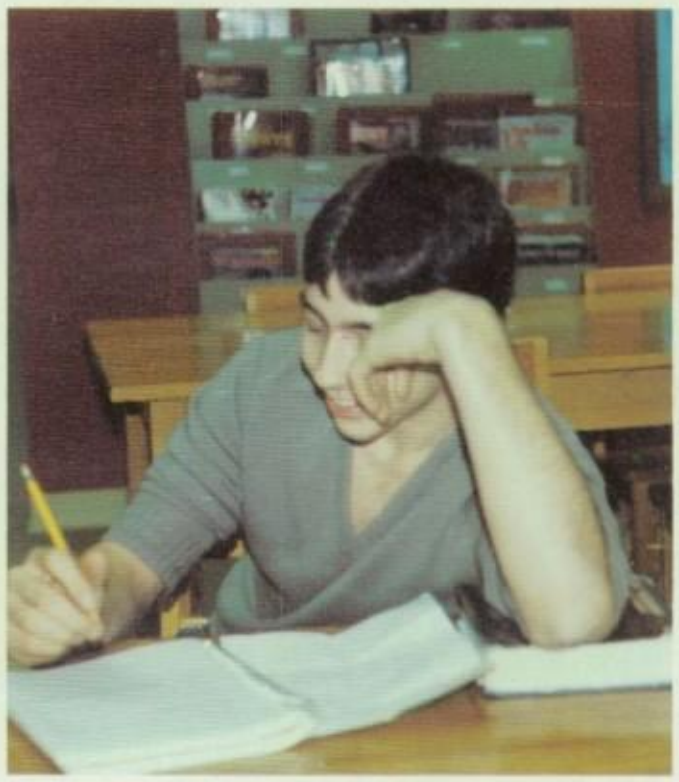
These days are the memories of tomorrow. We shall always treasure these moments – the games, the never-ending phone conversations, the dances, and the friendships.



A smile is a little curve that brightens everyone's day. It's given to those who need it most by those who have plenty to give away.



Pride is different things to different people. For some it is studying extra hard to make good grades. For others it's just managing to remember what books to take to which class.



Friends are special people. Memories of friends are to be cherished forever. Friends are the people you share your thoughts and feelings with. They understand your troubles. Between friends, there are times when even silence is enough.
